Cultural, Academic and Sporting achievements also deserve special mention this year. It is pleasing to see our cultural and academic achievers gain deserved recognition as a balance to the traditional high profile sporting reputation at Westlake. It would be monotonous to mention all the individuals, teams and groups that did find success in 1990. But I feel particular congratulations must go to all the group involved in the fabulous production of South Pacific; the five University Bursary Scholarship winners of 1989 (especially 16 year old Simon Webb of the Sixth form); the yachties (dominant Australasian Champions) and John Steel (Commonwealth Games medallist) who were all the pinnacle of Westlake achievers in the new decade.

Looking ahead it is satisfying to realise that in years to come Westlake will continue to nurture individuals that will succeed in their own respect. I think this is a just reflection of the conscientious staff (all to whom I am personally indebted), and indeed to the way in which Westlake is run. To all those boys continuing at Westlake in 1991 I can only say that the School will always more than provide for you, if you reciprocate. To all those leaving - be proud to have been part of such an institution wherever and whenever you are.

My personal thanks to Mr Pascoe, Mr Glackin, Mr Simpson, Mr Ferner and Mr Weal for their special influence and guidance during my time at Westlake.

For me, 1990 has been the pinnacle of my schooling. To be chosen Head Prefect was an honour I will always remember and be proud of, especially with Westlake renown in New Zealand as a fine institution of Sporting, Cultural and Academic excellence.

Best Wishes and ..... "long live the swan"

A special thanks is given to all those students and teachers who submitted material to SHORE 1990.

rounds. Central government subsidies are paid on a per capita enrolment basis - an indirect voucher system ..... and loans are available to help families. As a result large elements of competition have developed and nearly half the parents in cities choose private schools. Competitive solutions offer the advantage to lower socio-economic groups in providing the means of improving themselves. It also means that Schools have to perform in such a way that parents wish to send their children to those schools.

If our country is to move from a low growth to a high growth employment economy, New Zealand's low education standards are not good enough. The key, I believe is never really acknowledged, yet studies highlight it time and time again - the crucial factor in student achievement is teacher quality ... and the systems and incentives that encourage teachers to perform well.

The cry was that the 'Tomorrow's' Schools reforms would "improve the quality and standards of our schools" but I don't believe that 18 months down the track there is any evidence at all of this happening. Altering administrative systems in themselves will not necessarily result in any improvement within the classroom. In fact there is possibly chalk-face evidence to prove that the pace and stress of the changes have affected the quality of classroom teaching adversely.

Having said all that I have enormous faith in the goodwill of 90% of the people associated with Schools. Excellent people have come forward to work on Boards of Trustees and give so much time to help students - I do hope they will stay. Most teachers work very hard and genuinely have the good of their students at heart. If ever we need good schools we need them now as society changes and traditional family attitudes alter. Good Schools basically mean good teachers and if the system can retain and attract the right teachers the pupils will prosper despite the quality of administrative reforms.

There is no doubt in my mind that we can eventually have most efficient and accountable schools, well resourced and toeing the line to Boards of Trustees, Review Agencies and Ministries of Education. But we won't necessarily have what we really need inside them i.e. the best possible teachers to influence and help young people. Do you parents realize that very very few of the really able secondary students are opting for teaching? John Graham of Auckland Grammar recently reported and I quote 'not one Auckland Grammar leaver has gone into teaching in the last four years' Here at Westlake, if I was to ask for a show of hands right now of our 1990 Prizewinners of those intending to enter teaching as a career, I doubt whether there would be any response. The real challenge for education in the 1990s, I believe, is to change that attitude right around.

To return from the wider educational stage, two of our senior students will shortly report on the cultural and sporting sides of the schools, so I will keep my remarks very brief.

Westlake is nevertheless continuing to gain quite remarkable success in a whole range of sporting activities and this is due to enthusiastic participation and also considerable individual talent. Evidence of this came right at the start of the year at the time of the Commonwealth Games. No fewer than 7 competitors at the Games were from Westlake Boys. Current pupils - John Steel, a Bronze medalist in Swimming, Paul Amey - a New Zealand Junior rep. in the Games Demonstration Triathlon, and recent Old Boys - Kerrin Harrishon and Nick Hall in Badminton, Nick Sanders in Swimming, David Wickenden in Boxing (as well as Dr McKay, the Boxing Coach) and Malcolm Cooper, Silver Medalist in Shooting. The question could well be asked, is there another School in the Commonwealth that could boast such a number?

I am hoping that the cultural side of school life is about to receive a real shot in the arm by the addition of new facilities. Most of you will have watched with interest the building, to my right, of the new Music and Drama suites. This new wing, which the Board of Trustees has been pleased to name the Harvey Thompson suite, after the first Headmaster of Westlake Boys, is almost complete and will be ready for use at the start of next year. I am sure our teachers and pupils with special interest and talents in Music and Drama will thrive on the increased space and fresh surroundings and enable this cultural dimension to flourish in the School. At this point it is appropriate for me to acknowledge publicly the generosity and cooperation of the Ministry of Education and Mr Handas in particular in making the million dollar project a reality and also to Halstead and Adams the Architects for their full cooperation and assistance.

As our school year draws to a close I wish also to thank the various parent support groups operating within the school. The 1990 Parent Teacher Association, led by Mr John Blundell and Mrs Sharon Fordham have at all times been encouraging and supportive. This year has seen a cherished dream of the PTA brought to a successful conclusion. The $100,000 New Canteen project is within about a week of being fully built, painted and ready to open. It is a magnificent facility, the result of much careful planning and hard work, but a Canteen with the capacity to service and fill the stomachs of thousands of future Westlake boys. Many have helped in bringing this about, but all I am sure, would want me to acknowledge the tireless service of Mrs Margaret Sutherland in coordinating the whole exercise. The PTA are called on for help on countless occasions throughout the year and we thank them for their wonderful cooperation right up to this evening where they have arranged flowers and decorations and have provided the supper to which all are warmly invited at the conclusion of this ceremony.

Mr Nicoll has outlined some of the tasks and responsibilities of the Westlake Boys High School Board of Trustees. We are extremely fortunate to have such a talented and experienced group of Trustees because the commitment of time and ultimate responsibilities of Board members are considerable. I would not wish to let this occasion pass without paying tribute and publicly acknowledging the outstanding work of the late Mr Peter Stuart, Finance Chairman of the Board till earlier this year. The Board of Trustees has had to face changes of systems emanating from the Tomorrow's Schools procedures and have coped admirably, so on your behalf I would like to express to Mr Warwick Nicoll our Chairman, Mr Alan Yorke, our Secretary and all Board members our very sincere thanks.

To all parents, Old Boys and friends of the school by their attendance and support of Report evenings, P.T.A. meetings, remedial reading groups, assistance with new immigrants, sporting and cultural activities and prizegivings our sincere appreciation and thanks.

We would also pay tribute to our Senior Community School Supervisor, Mr Stan Tait, and his assistant Mrs Betty Pierce. Mr Tait has directed the Evening Class programme with efficiency and understanding, and I am sure many parents and boys would be surprised if they knew the extent to which our classrooms, Gymnasias and Assembly Hall are in regular use in the evenings. This will be Mr Tait's final year in the Community School area and so we would wish to specially thank you, Stan, for administering so ably this thriving side of our school.

The Schools Library, Clerical, Caretaking and Grounds personnel under the direction of Executive Officer, Mr Pat Underwood have also made a most valuable contribution to the efficient and harmonious functioning of the school this year. In these days of school fires and wilful vandalism, vigilance and constant patrolling of school grounds is a must, and in this regard can I specially thank one of the real 'unsung' heroes of Westlake Mr Brian Jones, our School Caretaker.

I would also like to acknowledge once again the energy and professional commitment of the whole Westlake teaching staff and to my secretary Mrs Howe, Mr Ready, Mr Johnson and Mr Rivers in particular. The school is certainly very well served by these three experienced and very hard working senior administrators.

Finally I wish to congratulate all our prize winners this evening and to offer our best wishes to those students who are leaving us at the end of the year.

2300 years ago Aristotle wrote 'The youth of today have no respect for their elders - they ignore their parent's good advice and treat their teachers with scorn. At the table they show no manners. They laugh loudly. They are lazy and have no thought for the future!'

A familiar lament and an assumption which we read all too often today in newspapers and view on T.V. screens. I have much more confidence in our youth and feel real pride in the boys that will be receiving prizes and going out into the wider world this year.

The physical world you are entering may be changing but the human condition does not.

You are going out into an exciting, challenging world, but at the end of the day it will be your attitude and your moral fibre that will determine your success. Remember words that we try to use around here - like self respect, endeavour, excellence, and thought for others. Thank you for your enthusiasm, your energy and your freshness - these are the things that keep us young.

My hope is that Westlake boys over the past 4 or 5 years has been a very positive influence on you and that you will be well equipped to meet the challenges that you will face in the years ahead.

And now to the two Top awards of the Evening:

1. The P.T.A. Prize and Plaque for the School Dux has been won by Hamish Morgan.

Hamish is an outstanding student academically, the winner of an 'A' Bursary from the 6th Form last year and this year a candidate for the New Zealand Education Foundations examinations. Hamish has been very helpful this year in tutoring junior students and next year begins a conjoint B.Com/B.Sc. degree at the University of Auckland. He looks ahead to a career in Computer Science.

2. The Old Boys' Award and Plaque for Head Prefect has been won by Paul Boyle.

As you have already seen and heard Westlake Boys boasts many outstanding young men so to be chosen as Head Boy and to perform these duties remarkably well is a great honour.

Paul is an excellent student academically having already achieved an 'A' Bursary in Form 6. Despite his other duties he has continued to maintain very good work standards. Paul is a fine all-round sportsman representing Westlake each year at Cricket and Squash. He has captained the First Eleven Cricket team for two years and is an Auckland Under 18 Cricket Representative. He is also the top player in our School Senior Squash team, which finished 2nd in New Zealand, and is presently ranked 3rd in New Zealand Under 19 Squash. Cheerful and thoroughly reliable Paul intends going on to the University of Auckland next year to start a conjoint BA/LLB course. Long term he looks to a career in Economics or the Treasury - after the financial news this past week I have the feeling, that we need people like Paul in that area!

That concludes the Special Awards - Thank you Mr Nicoll.

And now we come to the final part of our programme - the Stage Band Item 'Ain't Misbehaving'.

After this final item the Official Party will leave the Assembly Hall, but we would wish to extend, once again, a cordial invitation to parents and boys to move through the courtyard to the Staffroom for supper.

Thank you Ladies and Gentlemen.

PREFECTS' REPORT

As the fuss and chaos of the beginning of the year departed and the school settled down to a more normal routine, the age-old question was again beginning to disturb the complacency of Westlake's upper hierarchy .... who shall be given the ultimate power at the ultimate price?

Elections were summarily executed in an all out attempt to find a suitable answer to this perplexing question. A new type of man was needed: Strong, Resourceful, Intelligent, and Charismatic; possessing Leadership, Initiative, Determination and an innate ability to sense a third former with his socks down at forty meters ... they had the technology, they could find them.

The criteria were near impossible (these traits having been selected against in the normal seventh former) but, one by one, dubious mental stability were asked onto the stage to receive emblems denoting the whole weight, power, and backing of the school was behind them (at this early stage they looked rather more like small bits of metal with a Swan stamped on the front, little did we know the vast powers these insignificant looking badges conferred on their wielders.).

Over the year, the Prefectorial group, gained in confidence and badge-wielding ability, giving whole-hearted participation to any half-possible plan dreamt up by our Head, Paul Boyle, and his Deputy in the Common Room, in the slack period between arriving at school and leaving for home.

During the months at school many brave deeds were done, and records set (sometimes unknowingly) by the crew of Captain Boyle so it was felt by the First Officer, among others, that these should not go unnoticed:

First up we have the Mental Health Award, which goes to our Student Rep., Jamie Iversen. Despite many hours spent in meetings communing with the Powers That Be and many other demands on his time, Jim always seemed to be in the right place at the right time to keep the good ship Westlake on an even keel, and, (according to popular opinion) managed to maintain his sanity as well; under pressure that has left good men spending the rest of their lives flirting with brussel-sprouts and banging their heads against big iron things.

The Peroxide Award for 1990 goes to Sam Betts, with a level of blondness not usually seen outside of Heavy-Industry Chemical Exposure, making this a particularly notable achievement as most hair would have given up and evaporated well before this stage.

Des Knight, Gareth McFarlane and Craig Foote get the Award for Internal Discipline. For their ability to note down a defenceless pupil's name for detention, clean him, gut him, and fry him, all in the space of, oh, 3.5 seconds; and the extra-ordinary lengths and stamina they have in practising their favourite pastime, up to and including high-speed pursuit.

The Most Imposing Prefect Award goes jointly to Aaron Brewis and Mark Sandford (for obvious reasons). Where to break up a fight, normally the ratio is 10 Combatants: 10 Prefects, with these two around it swiftly changes to 1 Prefect : 1 Riot.

Kim Struthers and Richard Pierce gain the Dental Brilliance Award with Chris Trew a close runner-up, for more choppers seen per mouth per day than Geoffery Palmer, who's been practising for most of his life. The optimism of these guys has been a support to all.

To John Steel goes the Highly Honoured Award of Non Attendance. John, who seems to spend half his school life in the water, gained this award, to which all prefects aspire, through topping off his performance by missing the prefect's photo itself (proven by his nonexistence in the photo opposite).

The Muscle Award for Protein-Packedness almost awards itself to Hamish McKenzie whose lunch provides a great topic of conversation in the common room between bursts of thrash metal or Captain Boyle's latest philosophy and whose drive has helped keep the crew on the rails.

Andrew Buckton, Blair Kitchener and Jesse Warn gain the Highly Prized Evolutionary Throwback Cup for sprouting more hair on their heads in their final year at school than most people manage to grow in the majority of their lives. And, still managing to see out, (without the aid of any prosthetic devices whatsoever), contributed mightily to the cause. All three came close runners-up in the Trend Award for 1990 which was finally taken out by Matthew Reinholds, Simon Farland (who also came runner-up for the Most Imposing Prefect Award) and Hudson Smales. For their vast reservoir of tappable trends; collectively, for the worst tie seen on a prefect across nine universes, looking faintly like something the cat brought in then brought up, although even with a Heylen Poll we were unable to be quite sure, and finally for the large number of good qualities they brought into the prefect group that served as an example to us all.

Shane Newman (who also gained runner-up in the Academic Activist Halo), Mark Bond and Chris Trew gained the Never-Done-So-Much-For-So-Many-With-So-Little-And-So-Quietly Award for being some of the least obvious and most resourceful movers and shakers behind the scenes in the prefect group especially when winding up to deal to some of the more impertinent collection of used teachers in the sporting arena.

The Ability To Handle Stress Award went without opposition to Alistair Somerville and Iain Hamilton whom nothing seems to effect and whose capacities to fly in the face of public reaction by remaining unmoved at the shock of a surprise exam, or laughing mirthfully at the prospect of being used for acupuncture practice by a maniac with a forklift, are the stuff of legend.

The Iron Self Control Award went to Jeremy Nicoll for his astounding ability to hold his composure when all around him are rapidly losing theirs, and the Speed Kills Trophy went to Daniel Jones for his relentless scientific curiosity in testing this theory and to whom the lightspeed barrier looks set to fall.

Special mention must also be made of the Big Four in the Admin. corridor, and those guys throughout the school, without whose help and support the year would have been far harder than even Jeremy's Iron Control could handle.

To the prefects: Congratulations to a great bunch of guys for surviving over the last year and it looks hopeful that everyone gained something from the experience (even if it's only one of these Awards). To everyone else: Thanks for putting up with us and giving us the opportunities we were given.

On a final note:

"He who craves power, deserves to get it".

Good luck to all.

Mattson Arblaster.

STUDENT REP REPORT

Being voted Student Representative in 1990 was seen by myself as a very challenging pursuit, as a position of responsibility and leadership.

The task gave me opportunities to be involved in matters particularly concerned with voicing students opinion and also to assist the board in overseeing the School's policies.

I, along with the Board of Trustees, see my job as Student Representative as important in voicing opinion, ideas and suggestions students may have to offer. Secondary school students are approaching an age of maturity and can offer sound ideas which are relevant and important in the running of the School. Through my job, students have the opportunity to do so.

One disappointment from the job was perhaps the lack of voice from students with inquiries they may have had, but I think this is due to the fact that we are still in a relatively preliminary stage of the Tomorrow's Schools format.

However, the job was very enjoyable and beneficial, as it required listening, communicating and responding to various matters of significance. The benefits were abundant, giving me valuable insight into such matters as meeting formats; ways of presenting and attacking problems and queries, gaining view points by approaching the various facilities involved in school activities and reaping the benefits of self-satisfaction and "benevolence".

I would hope the pupil elected next year, will approach this job with enthusiasm and devotion and continue the positive trend of the past two years.

Finally I would like to pay tribute to all the Board members for their insatiable help and to my loyal band of supporters and disciples (especially Duncan Garner for his media attention), in making this year an enjoyable success.

I look forward to my rumoured 2nd term in office next year!!.

Best Wishes,
James Iversen
(Student Representative: 1990)

HEAD BOY'S REPORT

To be appointed Head Boy in 1990 has been a wonderfully unique way to complete five years of eventful secondary education. The year from any perspective will always be remembered for the people involved and the various events from February to November.

The day of reckoning was February 9th when I proudly donned the gold swan to my shirt for the first time. I was then followed by 25 other seniors noted for their qualities of leadership and distinction, and it wasn't long before this pupil politburo was practising plenty of the rituals they had enviously watched past prefects partake in.

This year the prefects again involved themselves in gate duties, blitzes, speeches, functions, committees and many other dutiful tasks.

For their services, not only did these magnanimous adolescents receive a silver swanned medallion, but they also enjoyed many perks, including a magnificent five course meal at the Senior Master's residence. Thanks from myself to Mr Johnson and to all the 1990 prefects, especially those who really made an effort to involve themselves.

The Seventh Form of this year made the transition from the grey uniform to the "regulation" uniform with a little difficulty. The Staff made a killing on confiscated jewellery, basketball boots, T-shirts and other extreme forms of fashion conjured up by Mr Borok's (in)famous dress code.

However the guys this year proved themselves a worthy and laudable group in the true mould of Westlake Seventh Formers. Most involved themselves in third form buddy programmes and third form rumbles which ran most smoothly - except the one rumble which ended in an altercation involving over 20 plates of spaghetti! The seventh form social committee also ran some highly successful evenings, most notably the "70's" senior dance which had all Westlake seniors digging deep into their parents' closets and unveiling some of the most dreadful, tasteless and unbelievable articles of apparel. Matson "Moses" Arblaster, Jim "Sunbeam" Iversen and Cameron "007" Wilson emerged the most unfashionable, yet subsequently gaining the most attention.

The cliché "7th form is your best year" holds definite significance for me, and probably too, for Jim Iversen and Kim Struthers who couldn't resist another year around in 1990. My thanks and best wishes to all fifth year students.

Special Award Winners for Seventh Formers this year were - * Most outrageously accepted fashion award - Rick Barker (for his clever combinations of fluorescents, rugby socks and bush shirts)

* Least work best results award -
Brendon Hooker (unanimous)

* Schemer of the year award -
Dean Thomas (unanimous)

* Consistently outrageous hairstyle award - Lee Stanley (close vote)

Cultural, Academic and Sporting achievements also deserve special mention this year. It is pleasing to see our cultural and academic achievers gain deserved recognition as a balance to the traditional high profile sporting reputation at Westlake. It would be monotonous to mention all the individuals, teams and groups that did find success in 1990. But I feel particular congratulations must go to all the group involved in the fabulous production of South Pacific; the five University Bursary Scholarship winners of 1989 (especially 16 year old Simon Webb of the Sixth form); the yachties (dominant Australasian Champions) and John Steel (Commonwealth Games medallist) who were all the pinnacle of Westlake achievers in the new decade.

Looking ahead it is satisfying to realise that in years to come Westlake will continue to nurture individuals that will succeed in their own respect. I think this is a just reflection of the conscientious staff (all to whom I am personally indebted), and indeed to the way in which Westlake is run. To all those boys continuing at Westlake in 1991 I can only say that the School will always more than provide for you, if you reciprocate. To all those leaving - be proud to have been part of such an institution wherever and whenever you are.

My personal thanks to Mr Pascoe, Mr Glackin, Mr Simpson, Mr Ferner and Mr Weal for their special influence and guidance during my time at Westlake.

For me, 1990 has been the pinnacle of my schooling. To be chosen Head Prefect was an honour I will always remember and be proud of, especially with Westlake renown in New Zealand as a fine institution of Sporting, Cultural and Academic excellence.

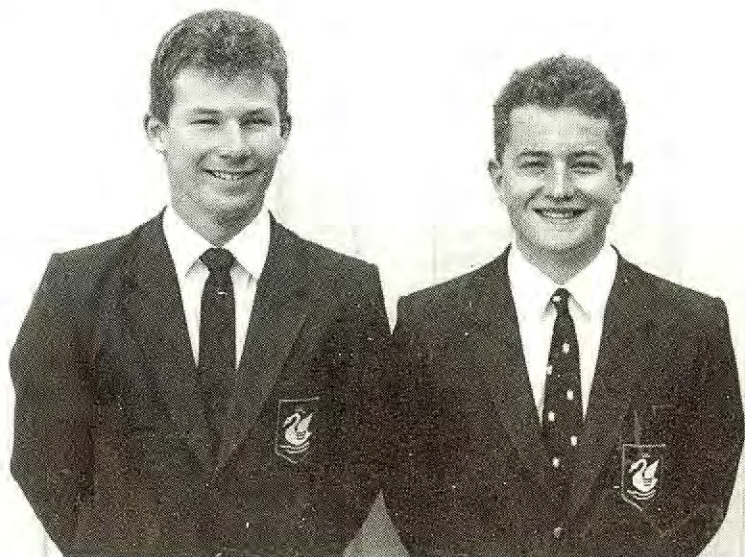

Best Wishes and ..... "long live the swan"

Paul Boyle

LANDSCAPING

This year has been a busy one for my team. Four boys in particular, Philip Weir, Scott Crilly, Kevin Townend and Jarrod Watson have been involved with a number of projects this year.

These included the formation of a bark garden behind the changing sheds, a raised bark garden opposite the library, a raised rockery behind N.5, cleaning and planting up the area behind the Art Room.

Not content with that, they and the transition to work boys who passed our way, dug out the area now hosting a widened pathway behind the Tech. Drawing room and D.5 Art Room.

Also they had the dubious honour of demolishing the "Palmer Wall" beside the hall to allow for the building of the Music Suite. We were made aware of the maker's displeasure at the Old Boy's Day. Sorry Scott!!

We have made a start on the school frontage which lacks a coherent plan, removing those items which simply will not grow or fit.

Said Jarrod "I liked the chance to be able to design what you wanted and have a say in what happened." I am sure he enjoyed spending some of my budget!

Philip said "I felt that it was an intellectual subject." Philip and Kevin in particular realised this when all the options had to be considered like sun, soil, drainage, land use, etc.

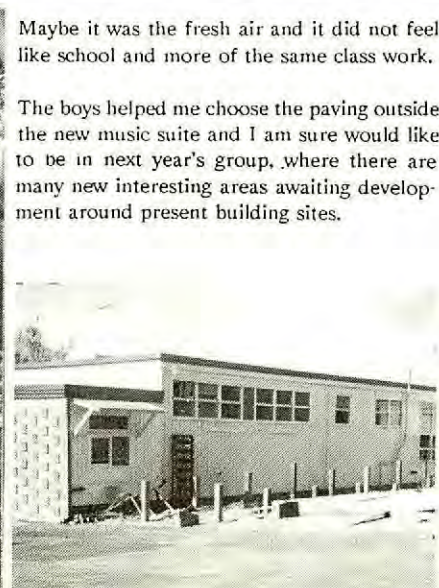

Kevin said "I didn't like the digging (and we did plenty of that) but I liked planting the trees."

Scott didn't always see eye to eye with some of the transition boys, but he could forget that when he went to the Garden Centre.

"I did like going down to the Garden Centre".

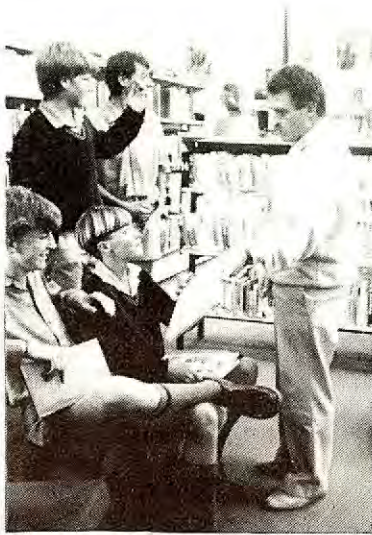

Maybe it was the fresh air and it did not feel like school and more of the same class work.

The boys helped me choose the paving outside the new music suite and I am sure would like to be in next year's group, where there are many new interesting areas awaiting development around present building sites.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

For many years Westlake Boys' High School has been running a successful programme throughout the year for people of all ages who wish to learn, share interests, or merely meet other members of their community in a friendly atmosphere of learning.

The course programme is designed to reflect specific educational needs of the community and ensure that flexibility allows change, and that course fees permit access for all. A study of the course offered in past years certainly reflects change as stimuli from the community generate new ideas or as former courses are reborn to enjoy a new lease of life.

It is important that members of the community are aware that their input of ideas is needed and they should not hesitate to phone or write to the co-ordinator of the programmes at the school.

Whether you are young or old, with interests in practical or in academic activities there is something for you. You will meet other people from the local community with similar interests and, if you are nervous about taking up something new, you can be sure that most of the people you meet will be doing something for the first time. If you want to learn a new skill, or update an old one, Community Education can help you. "Learning for Life" is our catch-phrase. If you want to learn a language, become competent with a computer, fly a helicopter, tune in to the airwaves as a licensed amateur radio operator, cakes, arrange flowers to make your friends gasp, acquire Ministry of Transport qualifications to sail your boat safely etc., etc., then enrol next year.

Details of all courses are published in the North Shore Times Educational Supplement and displayed in libraries at the beginning of the school year. In 1991 this will be late in January. Community Education classes that are held in the school start in the week beginning 18th February. Most classes are of two hours duration, from 7 pm to 9 pm. Early enrolment is appreciated so that classes may be organised promptly.

We look forward to seeing you in 1991.

3 SMITH TELETHON EVENT

On Thursday the 28 September, 3 Smith raised money for Telethon. The event that raised the money was a race against Mr Tait, Ben Sandford and the rest of 3 Smith. Mr Tait had a head start of 35 metres.

The race started. Mr Tait was leading all the way with 3 Smith behind and Ben Sandford halfway. It ended up Mr Tait winning and he raised $9.00 for Telethon. It was a great event.

SOUTH PACIFIC.

This year the combined schools production was the excellent musical, by OSCAR and HAMMERSTEIN. The musical was a pleasure to produce and the cast were totally responsive and helped with their dedication and enthusiasm towards the final polished performance.

The lead was played by Kierstein Williams as, the muddle-headed, Nellie Forbush, her singing and acting was polished and she imaginatively portrayed this role. Heath Jones proved an excellent, male lead for the part of, Emile Debeque and his acting was especially noted for its depth of portrayal, of this romantic, latin character.

Christine Phillips proved to be an excellent Bloody Mary her role was not an easy one and she gave a very fine performance.

The part of, the rascally but lovable character, Luther Billis, was played by, Andrew Kania. Andrew, proved himself equal to the role and he was able to capture all the moods of this lovable yet complex character. Again, among the boys, the role of the romantic officer, Cable, was played by, Paul Hitchcock. Paul tackled a very difficult singing and acting role.

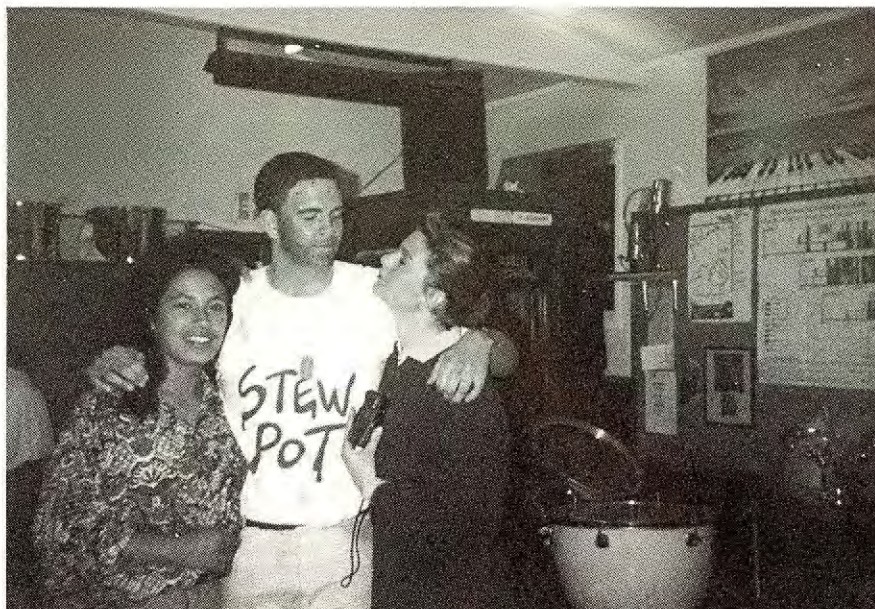

His performance was superb and his song, "Younger Than Springtime" was delivered with style and sensitivity.

Every pupil from this combined schools project must really be very proud of their final effort. Many of the audience commented on the fine, overall performance. The boys were able to sing, act and dance with great energy and our thanks must go to, Jessie Warn and Jamie Iverson, for uniting the great team spirit that made this musical such a success.

The producer apologises for the late start to this production but he was away, somewhere in the desert, with a bout of malaria.

Our thanks to Mr John Macauley and his very considerate, backstage crew. Our thanks to the woodwork department, and especially Mr. Allan Hooper for building the multi purpose stage. Mr C. Williams for costumes and Mrs Chan for choreography are two people, who worked very hard for this stage success. We thank Mr Jacob Einenwinkel for the lighting. Without these teachers the play would not have been possible.

Finally, the musical director, Mr Russell Brooke must be congratulated on the superb score by this very young and dedicated orchestra. He was assisted by Mr N. Williams who coached the singers.

 2nd Row: A.Kania, G.Pennycook, J.Rowan, A.Newlands, J.Hart, M.Cullum, Mr R.J.Noble.

DEBATING

Westlake Boys again managed to produce winners, but it was a struggle at times as we had to manage without the support of parents this year in coaching the boys. This was especially noticeable in the third form area: two teams were fielded and had one win each, but they were unable to reach the standards of other years. We also had two fourth form teams entered in the Junior competition, and after a slow start, they improved noticeably under the coaching of Mrs Toner.

4th Form Teams: Philip Norton Vincent Wong Eli Weir John Cater James Smith Alan Berthenshaw Jamie Pendlebury

In the Senior competition for 5th formers, Westlake had 3 wins out of 4 from the experienced combination of Richard Millington and Edward Browne who enlisted the support of Andrew Kania and even introduced timekeeper-supreme Henry Boulton into the starting line-up for the last round.

Yet more creditable was the performance of the best of our fourth formers who moved up a grade, and won their section with an unbeaten record. They eventually missed out on an Auckland final when they lost a play off with our old friends from down the hill. The team members were: Glen Pennycook Daniel McGowan Marshall Smith and Nicholas Rattenbury.

Westlake had the best record for several years in the National Jaycee competition, with wins over Rangitoto College, Northcote College and Rodney College. We finally bowed out at the Auckland semifinal stage to Kings College. On the credit side we also defeated Tauranga Boys at Tauranga and Peter Dennis won the Royal Overseas League Speech Contest. The Thorburn Trophy went back to Westlake Girls and in the A.D.A. Advanced Contest, our three teams just broke even in a season that was always a rush and sometimes a panic. Magic moments for this year included a set of speeches gobbled up by a computer on the day of the debate, and a calculated attack on the opposition with a loaded water pistol, which almost led to the first ever sending off in a school debate.

Personel at this exalted level included William Browne James Christmas Bruce Costain Peter Dennis John Hart Nathan Jenkins Heath Jones Andre Newlands James Rowan David Winchester and Gary Wong.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

FRENCH

The Alliance française is a Paris-based organisation whose task it is to promote the use and understanding of French around the world. Each year they set exams for senior pupils in New Zealand schools and this year we had six pupils entered. Of these Alistair Somerville of Form 7 gained an extremely creditable 5 = placing while James Dawson and Edward Browne of Form 5 received a "mention bien". This was a very good achievement considering that the tests are sat by pupils from all schools in the Auckland and North Auckland areas. In recent years the trend in language teaching has been increasingly biased towards the spoken use of the language and it is particularly pleasing when pupils actually have the chance to use the language in a "real" situation. Two pupils who have received this chance are : Hayden Mulholland who joined a group going to France and spent two weeks touring through France then one week in a home-stay situation, and David Thexton who will be spending 1991 in a French family and going to school there. Bonne chance, David!

GERMAN

1990 has been an interesting year for pupils learning German with all the immense historical changes taking place in Central and particularly Eastern Europe and with the emergence of Germany as the strongest economic power in Europe. The developments have been avidly followed and it is to be hoped that with the increasing awareness of German influence in Europe more people will take advantage of the chance to develop closer links with Germany. The opportunities for pupils to actively further their German studies in Germany have never been better and this is borne out by the fact that three pupils from WBHS will be visiting Germany in 1991 (William Browne for 2 months, Simon Patterson for 3 months and Damon Wills for 1 year - gute Reise und viel Spass!). Timo Schmidt from Cologne is currently at WBHS on exchange for 1 year and Kevin Wood will be going to Germany for 1 year in 1992. However for those who weren't so fortunate there were visits to an Austrian cafe - where the proprietor kindly gave a discount to those who spoke German - and a slide show put on by the Goethe Society to give the pupils some impressions of Germany. As with French, there are also exams for students of German, and these are set by the Goethe Society. This year the results were particularly pleasing and were as follows:

Form 7	William Browne	diploma
Form 6	Brett Wilson	diploma
	David Winchester	highly commended
	Michael Woodward	commended
Form 5	Peter Waring	2nd prize
	Simon Patterson	Lufthansa prize
	Richard Millington	special prize
Form 4	John Cater	Lufthansa prize
	James Smith	special prize
	David Ellis	diploma
	Peter Tyson	diploma
	Lars Wahlmann	diploma
	Oliver Smith	commended
Form 3	Bill Chiu	3rd prize
	Brian Easton	diploma
	Brad Walker	diploma
	Richard Cutting	highly commended
	Michael Kandziora	commended

Congratulations to the above boys for a fine effort.

JAPANESE

Japanese has been growing steadily in the school with one 3rd form class in 1988, two in 1989, three in 1990 and 1991, ???. This is reflecting the growing awareness that we live in an increasingly 'international' world, and that we must in future develop an ability to communicate better with our overseas markets, especially those around the Pacific rim. Although there seem to be few openings for the pure language specialist, there are unlimited opportunities for those with other professional qualifications who also have some knowledge and understanding of the Japanese language and culture as well. The culture is certainly very different from the European cultures and the Japanese themselves often feel misunderstood, but the growing numbers of Japanese language students are gaining insights into the culture that will help to bridge the gap and will possibly help them in their future business careers.

We have been privileged to have some Japanese nationals enrolled at school this year. Jun Honma now resides permanently in New Zealand and participates in senior language classes. He has been of great assistance and also often has time to tutor boys who need extra help. Yu Sakakibara and Yukihiro Tsugane who were in New Zealand to improve their English, also joined the senior classes in Terms 1 and 2. They returned to Japan in August to prepare for University Entrance exams, and we wish them the best of luck.

In 1991, Ashley Hughes of Form 5 will go to Japan on a year's exchange through NZIUI (New Zealand Institute of Understanding). Ashley was one of ten chosen from throughout New Zealand to participate in this exchange and has a very interesting and challenging year ahead. So, Ashley, 'Omedetoo. Gambatte ne!'

Each year in November, four students are selected at each level to represent Westlake at the Auckland Speech Competitions. In 1989, Richard Millington, as a 4th former, gained 6th = place, but he was in fact only one mark behind the 1st = placings, and a 1/2 mark behind the 3rd = placings. Well done, Richard! Taihen yoku dekimashita.

Planning and fundraising are now under way for a trip to Japan in May 1992 for the boys studying Japanese. This will include a homestay, as well as language lessons and sightseeing, and will put everything learned in the classroom into an unforgettable cultural context.

MUSIC

1990 has been a very messy year, trying to cope with the shambles created by the building of the new suite. The removal of one of the old music rooms necessitated all the gear from that room being stored in what was left of the building. This coupled with no desks and few chairs has seen rehearsals where players are perched everywhere!

The Concert Band was taken by Nigel Williams for Terms 1 and 2 this year. An adventurous repertoire was worked up which was taken to the North Shore Music Festival, the Westlake Music Concert, and also on a day visit to Aorere College. This group is set to blossom over the next few years.

The Big Band has had its usual share of dance gigs and playouts, with the dance at the Hyatt-Kingsgate Hotel for the American Club band being the highlight.

This year has seen the introduction of the Junior Band as a year long activity. Initially, a lot of work was done during rehearsals on solo's and improvising. For Term III the return of Mr Ted Dawson, who kindly agreed to take the band, has seen the group grow to 30, and the band mature into a fully fledged Concert Band.

Small groups have been the bonus of 1990. The ever popular Dixie group has progressed from nothing to a very strong group with a good repertoire. The Saxophone Quartet, a lovely sounding group, has been taking some contemporary works. Finally, the brass quintet has also performed at assemblies.

The Music Department also enjoyed being invited to the Lady Allum Home for a delightful afternoon of music making. This was a great chance for the 4th Form Music Class, and young pianists, to perform for an audience.

Despite the physical mess, a great deal of solid music making has taken place this year, and leads to a very exciting 1991.

Once again a big thank you to the very highly talented team of Itinerant Music Teachers - Jim Langabeer, Irene Rhodes-Beck, Ted Dawson, Barry Young, Neville Grenfel, Phil Lyons, Ken Pierson and Dave Woodbridge. Also to Nigel Williams and Penny Watson from Westlake Girls.

ADULTS.

There are things about adults you can just never understand as a kid. Why they send you to bed early, why they always nag, and why they drink so much of that stuff in the coloured bottle that makes them act stupid.

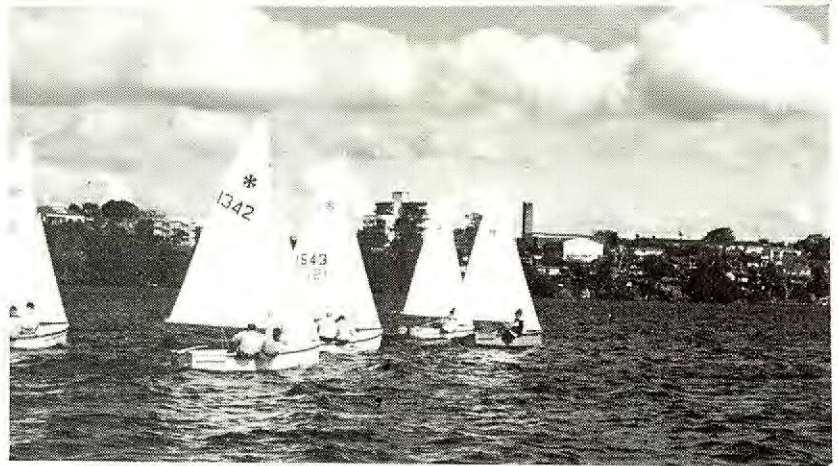

When Mum came in that night she said some pretty bad things to Mike. They were always arguing but this time it got real bad and they started hitting each other. It was pretty scary 'cause Mike left after that and we had to get extra locks on the doors. I missed Mike but he still took me out on weekends.

Mum seemed okay for a while but she drank a lot out of the green bottles that were kept hidden from me and Ben. Still, she seemed happy with the drink so I felt safe but sometimes she'd yell at us for nothing then not talk for ages - sometimes days.

One night I got up and noticed the lounge light on. I went in and rubbed my eyes because it was bright and saw Mum sitting at the table with lots of books and a glass of the stuff out of the bottle. She liked the books as much as the drink 'cause she went to university. I think she was doing physiocology or something but tonight she was just sitting there with her hands on her head. I asked, "What's the matter?" but she didn't speak. I asked again but there was still no answer. I must have asked a million times but she just sat there. I started to cry and she looked at me before turning away again. I went back to bed and cried the whole night.

It was okay for a while after that then one night she came home from a friend's place after helping to paint her kitchen. Mum looked real bad and went to bed. I heard her get up about twelve times that night to be sick in the toilet and she just kept saying "no more" and "never".

There are some things about adults you just never understand as a kid.

RED-HULLED BOATS

Salty sea air whistling past two funnels and along the stern of both red-hulled boats.

The sun is glimpsed for a short time showing the reflection of the two mighty black-funnelled and red-hulled boats, then rain falls breaking up the painting-like setting to a morbid and unwelcoming place.

Sleet and rain batter the boats and as the wind starts to pick up, the swell starts, rolling the ships around like toy boats in a bath tub.

Mist encloses the ships in a thick mass of cloudy air, separating them from sight of each other and the wharf. Fog horns are sounded and finally the fog lifts, leaving the rain and the salty sea breeze to continue battering the Canadian ships.

The rain and the wind die slowly leaving behind only a slight breeze to gently whisper around and over the two red-hulled ships.

FUTILITY

Move him into the classroom.
Gently a duster woke him once.
At school, whisperings of "What a jerk"
Always wake him, even in F.I
Until this morning and this Poetry.
If anything could rouse him now,
The man with the cane would know.

"Think how I wake my 6th Formers,
I woke one by wrapping a bat round his face."
Is Poetry so badly written - are lines so boring - so futile - that no-one will stir?
Was it for this that we grew tall?
Oh - what makes our teachers toil,
To break our sleep at all?

Glyn Jones

Can the feather block the wind?
And the pebble turn the tide?
"The Rebels" as they call us,
Can only run and hide.

Have you looked out lately,
From your government shack,
And seen that sky of acid,
That scene of acid black?

Unite shall we,
These women, these children and these men,
From villages and cities,
We shall rule again.

Can you say you like it,
Your life of pale wax grey?
All you can look forward to,
Is another day.

Now within the iron grip,
They hold us firm and fast,
But when they one day falter,
We'll be on top at last.

Come join the underground,
And be a rebel man,
Don't be held a prisoner,
By the government plan.

We'll struggle and we'll plan,
To turn this communist tide,
We'll build a wall of rock,
To hold the sea inside.

THE FIELD

Trees swing back and forth, like a huge crowd waving its hands. The noise of the cars on the motorway is the cheer of the crowd as Westlake scores the winning try.

David Reid

RUGBY, THE ISLAND WAY.

The whistle sounded the start of the match. Our fullback kicked the ball and it sailed through the air, gracefully flying towards the left-hand side of the pitch. Over the sideline it shot, bounced once and landed in the lagoon.

The site of the solitary playing field was on the widest strip of land on the entire atoll. The field just fitted on the largest bump of land.

Spectators, standing knee deep in the warm, blue, lagoon water, swam to the ball and soon it was on the side line. The hooker had to stand slightly in-field otherwise he would be standing in the water. The ball went up and was retrieved by the Westlake side. The ball spun out to the right and the wing ran the ball past the Island's team members and touched down, scoring the first points on the board.

The opposing team kicked off and the stubby legs of their kicker powered the ball over our heads, to the right and far out to sea. While a canoe was being launched to retrieve the ball, we made good use of the time to drink plenty of water and sponge our faces because the day was sweltering hot, even at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Everybody's eyes followed the canoe as it pulled away from the shore. Suddenly, the small outrigger stopped. Rising out of the water, a three foot shark fin rose and the football disappeared in a mass of thrashing white bubbles. The canoe had been used because of the fear of sharks, and now it paddled back in.

One of the native spectators ran off somewhere and promptly returned with a yellow, plastic, toy football. This he explained, was what their team practised with and there were no other balls on the island. Play then resumed, and the ball was thrown in by our hooker.

OUR FUTURE

How we have struggled
How we have fought
For a moment of freedom
To freely talk

To talk of our struggle
A struggle for hope
For hope that our children
Might gain a free vote

Our children are the future
The future of this land
The buds of a cherry tree
On their own two feet they must stand.

TUCKSHOP

Sunlight struggles feebly down through steel grey clouds like a bedroom lamp shining behind a frosty window. Worn grey concrete glistens wet, old discarded pieces of chewing gum and lolly wrappers stuck to it like immovable limpets on a rock at the beach.

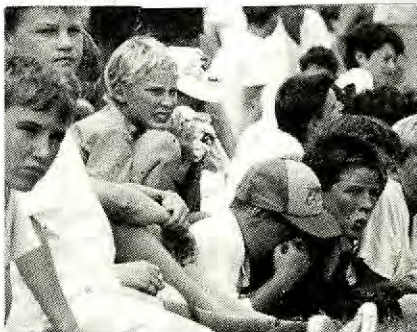

The tuckshop is a centre for rubbish, the messy look of lunch wrappers, dropped food, chewing gum, and bird droppings dominating the landscape in front of the harsh background of white, creamy coloured paint on the rippled wall of 'B' Block.

The bell sounds. The dull dreariness of the courtyard is dramatically extinguished as the enthusiastic throng respond to this call to freedom. Just seconds after the bell, the hustle and bustle of hungry youths begins, accompanied by all the rowdiness usually associated with this kind of pandemonium. Invariably, the rebel 5th and 6th formers at the front push the smaller, powerless and irritated juniors to the back.

The dormant volcano erupts, using the bell as its trigger, producing, not lava, but food, as the rush to satisfy hunger begins with a ruthlessness rarely seen elsewhere.

Another bell rings and the cacophony dissipates as the multitude return to the custody of their warders. The volcano again lies in wait.

THE ENIGMA OF FREEDOM

The people work oppressed
They slave and serve in thrall.
Dare we call
The mockery of
The life which we lead
Freedom?
I say 'nay !'
For while we struggle
In weakness and strength
For the mighty,
We suffer not one sweet breath
Of freedom.

Is freedom like to a Japanese sword?
Beautiful in rarity and form,
Yet ultimately deadly in function:
Enjoyed by one, unknown by many.
Or is it like a blade of grass?
Prolific and common,
But with simple beauty
And enjoyed by all of the people.

Yes, the grass is the dream we will fight for.
Blades of freedom versus blades of steel.
In my heart I pray
That the Russian people
Will be the final Victors.

Micheal Cooling

STRUGGLE

I am the country;
You are the people
You rattle your chains
And cry in pain

I look on,
Amused

Your cries grow weak
Your tears no more;
I shout in triumph,
As I have conquered all.

But when all is done
I grow still,
I see in your grave
A speck of hope.

However small
It gnaws away;
I grow weak
And released my grip.

In death you break your chains
And I scream in agony.
You soar to the heavens
Free at last.

AUTOGRAPH HUNTERS

Upon my 5.30 wake-up I lay in bed, chewing my fingernails awaiting the following three and a half hours to unfold. Through breakfast, the radio was blaring updates from the Scotland v Brazil match. Scotland needed at least one point to qualify for the second round.

Anson arrived at 8.45 but, we had to wait ten minutes before the news we didn't want, came through; SCOTLAND 0 - BRAZIL 1. Scotland had held on for 82 minutes before Brazil capitalised on Leighton's failure to hold a free-kick. Johnston missed a proverbial sitter from point-blank range four minutes later and the Scots were going home early again. Anson drove us to school in anger and nearly killed us 3 times.

Geography continued our misery as the exam results filtered through. Anson 25/85 and Chuck 21/85. At history the period was cut short by the louts who play with the fire bell. As it was 12:15, Mrs Brown suspected something but Sandford and Big Trav were already out the door so we were released. As we headed for the car for a McDonalds lunch, the booming voice of Mr Ready was heard telling everyone to return to class. We avoided him sweetly with the deftness of Gazza's ball skills and made for the car accompanied by Hudson. After the gourmet lunch, the suggestion by Anson to check out the Mon Desir Motel to see if we saw any signs of the Scottish rugby team was met with general approval.

As we rounded the corner to the side entrance, we were stunned to see heavenly ordained bodies pour out of a tour bus. Anson slammed the accelerator down and only avoided a bumper-to-bumper collision with a parked car by wrenching the hand brake. We stumbled out of the car and fumbled with the bonnet.

Hudson generously offered his pen as I couldn't find one and we haired across the road. Davies attached himself like a leech to Finlay Calder while I approached Craig Chalmers. Then I made a bee-line for Chris Gray while Anson conversed like an old mate to the big flanker. Chris Gray threw in an illiterate insult about the content of my autograph book and was backed up by John Jeffrey and David Sole. However, I persisted with "Dave" long enough to attain his signature. I waited at the doorstep as Finlay and Anson approached. I got his autograph and shook his hand wishing him luck. Upon seeing the page in my book dedicated to Gavin Hastings he enquired as to whether he should "Get Gavin for us" We waited at the door guarded by Auckland Rugby Officials. Two minutes later Finlay popped his head out. "I've phoned Gavin. He'll be down soon. Come in and wait if you want." We considered kissing his feet but thanked him instead.

Within seconds Gavin appeared and Anson called out. He came over and signed our books as we paid our respects. "You are the world's greatest player", "I've got a Gavin Hastings shrine at home" "You'll notice us in the crowd with the St Andrews cross", and told of our trip to Britain and my birthplace. With a shake of the hand and a bid of farewell we shot outside yelling across the road. I jumped the bonnet and we poured out the story to Hudson who listened intently and surprisingly enthusiastically.

Heading off back to school, the Brazil v Scotland match was forgotten and Davies nearly killed us three times with his driving. Some things never change.

Names changed to protect the innocent -

[Anson becomes "Cyrille"/ Hudson becomes "Wakahuri"/ The writer, Cuck, becomes known as "Kenny"]

PINBALL

The whole machine shudders
As the ball goes flying
Smack, Beep into the no-go zone.
Beep, Wiifreshh, the ball reappears
And a ringing is heard from inside.
Bang, Thwack, Vrnch, Boom,
As the ball carooms from side to side.
A bring is heard as the ball gets lost, down the exit hole.
Smick, a new ball is inserted and
It is sent flying.
The score is an insistent tick, tick, tick,
A crowd gathers and oohs and aahs are heard.
Oh no, a sigh as the high score is reached.
Crash, bash, crunch, kaboom, tingle
As the ball exits.
But a ding ding ding is heard as the new high score appears.

FREEDOM

Men with guns and a list of names,
Smash down doors and windows in the night.
In a country with supposed freedom
Is political incarceration right?

Fear in our people's eyes,
Fear in what they do.
Fear of speaking a bit too loud-
Would that seem fair to you?

The ineptness of our leaders,
The depression that they've weaved,
Results in suffering for the people,
Sun and laughter are bereaved

And when the tanks do something odd,
Tear down the wire and gulags fast.
The sun will rise in the east ,
There will again be freedom in the USSR

Steven Graham

THE FIELD

You step out onto the edge of the concrete and the field lies there, vast, as the sea would look from the top of the White Cliffs of Dover.

The field is almost entirely mud, with little grass surviving the battle with rugby boots. The outlines of pitches and markings cannot be distinguished from the rest of the mud and trampled grass. One area that remains undamaged is my beloved cricket pitch. Ringed by flimsy rope it even keeps the biggest rugby players off.

Most of the field is a wide, flat area. But there are many features surrounding it. The steep bank is a form of recreation as young children take skiing lessons during the week-end. The soggy ditch that separates field from bank resembles the dirty ring left after a bath. Well worn tracks lead from the edge of the field to Wairau Road. They are a contrast compared to the rarely used surrounding areas of lush grass. At the far side of the field is a long fence, straight, staring with a blank face. The sky-scraper trees block out the noises and visions of a dirty outside world.

The field will mean little to me and many others, as rain has closed it day after day. But wait until summer comes, when wood on leather will make this place my home.

WHAT AM I ?

Heavy,
Made of wood, and metal.
It's raised up,
And forced down
Upon Soldiers
With little round heads.
It has a tail,

QUAD

As I walk towards the quad, I feel as if I am walking through Mt Eden prison, with the old looking buildings, the dirty windows, the peeling paint and rusted piping.

We sit down on the concrete three quarter squares with the wooden seats, which look rotten and ready to break. The Teachers call these the pig pen because they are always messy with pieces of old food and paper.

The buildings around us are painted mouldy green and creamy yellow. I think this is the cheapest paint in the world. The buildings look run-down and just about to fall apart, as if no one cares about them.

I drop my pen and as I look down to find it I see it next to a lump of chewing gum, that someone has carelessly stuck on the ground.

We get up to head back for class. I take one last look at the old closed down factory and feel sad this is my school.
David Reid

It's vicious,
No arms, no legs,
Just a mouth-
Metal fanged,
Different age groups,
Large old ones,
Small young ones.
Both types born coloured
Tamed with writing material.
Wave the material at its face,
Watch it lash out,
Sink its fangs in deep,
Binding, possibly two pieces together.
It leaves behind its fangs,
But soon will Grow new teeth.
And then it waits,
For more flat white victims.

TUCKSHOP

Opposite "B" block is something that is close to everyone's heart. The small, squat, rectangular building now stands alone; spiders adding to the already messy exterior. Looking at the cream, green and brown paint, one does not gain the impression of this old, out of date, museum piece of '60s engineering being the central business hub of the entire school - in the eyes of the student, of course. It is - the tuckshop.

Every day prior to school, at interval, and at lunchtime, the workers of this little shed next to "B" block open its barred doors to reveal a wide array of foodstuffs and drinks to the drooling, wild, raging, and above all hungry mobs of Westlake Boys' students and teachers. For a little under one and half hours each day, the tuckshop discards its veil of quiet worthlessness to become a veritable "school Wall Street". Stocks (of food) are bought and sold at prices that make the "brokers" squeal with the delight of a person finding a $10 note on the ground.

Even I have risked the food-crazy crowds that swarm the tuckshop like bees around honey, with the intention of purchasing some item from the vast resources of the tuckshop. But alas the slow, deliberate and incredibly boring manner in which the customers are served always leaves me with the luck of being half-way through my order when the bell rings. This forces me to wait and pretend to do schoolwork while I listen to my stomach growl like a bear with constipation. I doubt whether much will be different when the "New and Improved" tuckshop is built later this year.

Vincent Wong

Everybody likes me
Nobody hates me.
You can step on me
But I would feel no pain.
I've been to the Tuckshop and returned home once again.
I am used daily.
I have been seen in a Chinaman's Ear
But that was Yest-a-Year.

SPORTS COORDINATOR'S REPORT

The year demonstrated the Schools traditional strengths in team sports and highlighted the growing international arena our sportsmen and teams compete in.

John Steel was winning a Bronze Medal in the 4X100m Freestyle relay in the 1990 Commonwealth Games as the school organized itself for Term 1. Our other representative at the Games, Paul Amey, competed in the Junior Triathlon which was a demonstration sport in Auckland. Undoubtedly we will see these two, amongst others presently at Westlake, featuring in future international competition.

The international flavour continued with visits to Australia by our Cross Country and Yachting teams. By the completion of competition the Yachting team was able to call itself Auckland, New Zealand and Inter-Dominion Champions - a distinction they share with last year's team.

Visits from Japanese Rugby teams indicated the growing appetite for this sport in Japan. Japan is a possible venue for a reciprocal visit from Westlake teams in 1991.

Chronologically the year had many highlights. Westlake dominated North Harbour Athletics and Swimming with some of our strongest teams in recent years. Our Rowing teams returned from Karapiro as Under 19 and Under 16 North Island Champions and later from Twizel as runners-up in the Maadi Cup and New Zealand Under 16 Champions.

Winter sport began with an early exchange against Kelston Boys High School. Highlight was the Moascar Cup Challenge which saw us narrowly lose this coveted trophy. Narrow losses also dominated the North Harbour Championship for the 1st XV. As top qualifier for the final round there was disappointment at not winning the Championship. This was balanced by four of our fifteen Grade teams winning North Harbour Championships. Obviously Rugby at Westlake is in good heart.

Our Soccer teams can be delighted with their year. The 1st XI battled to the Senior A title and promotion back to the Premier Division for next year. Of the ten other teams playing the Auckland competitions, four teams picked up championship titles.

Our Hockey teams continue to benefit from regular competition on the "turf" at Rosedale Park. The 1st XI took out the North Harbour Championship but would not match last years 4th place in Rankin Cup, finishing 13th.

There seems little dispute that our current Cross Country Squads are the strongest the School has seen. The Senior and Junior teams claimed North Harbour, Auckland and New Zealand titles. The Greater Public Schools of new South Wales witnessed the ability of our runners when they took out Senior and Junior GPS titles.

Racquet sports have maintained their popularity and success. The Senior Squash and Badminton teams are both Auckland Champions and Runners-up in the National Knockout Competition. The Senior Tennis team finished Term One at the top of the Auckland Table but in term 3 succumbed to AGS in the final match.

Improvement in the organisation of Basketball has paid dividends. The Senior A team only occasionally captured the form they were capable of, but it was the 4th and 3rd Forms teams who took out the Championship titles.

By the end of Term II, sport exchanges against Kelston, Kings College, Tauranga Boys High School and Whangarei Boys High School had been completed. These exchanges continue to give our teams valuable practice and are a yardstick with which we can measure and help maintain our own standards.

Cricket opened and closed the 1990 sport year and remains popular and competitive. The 1st XI finished 7th out of 14 teams and with many fine young cricketers in our grade teams, a bright future is assured.

The year brought into focus two on-going issues.

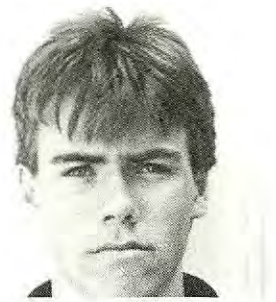

Westlake is privileged to have so many staff who are willing to participate in extra curricular activities. The Board of Trustees have moved to give extra support to Staff contributing in this way. Trends in other schools suggest a growing resistance to extra curricular participation and Westlake is continuing to encourage and facilitate student and staff involvement.

Pressure on our sports fields, courts and other facilities continues to grow. While public amenities often have a "breather" between seasons, school facilities are being constantly used. A real effort is being made to upgrade the grass playing surfaces our teams use. A management plan has been sought and is now being followed. Hopefully similar improvements in other facilities will follow.

My best wishes to all sportsmen leaving Westlake. I hope you take fond memories of your time here with you and expect to see your skills, commitment and sportsmanship reflected in the wider communities' clubs, representative and National teams.

WESTLAKE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Westlake sports continued the same format as in 1989, with the emphasis on Championship events. Record-breakers were:

J South-Intermediate High Jump 1.77m
S Newman-Senior 1500 metres 4m 9.5s

This time means Newman holds all three school 1500m records - a remarkable achievement considering the very high standard of our middle and long distance runners over the last ten years.

CHAMPIONSHIP RESULTS :

- JUNIOR: 1st B Duske (37PTS)
2nd J Conrad (26)
3rd J Pocock (25)
- INTERMEDIATE: 1st J South (19)
2nd S Marcroft (18)
3rd M Bradley (16)
- SENIOR: 1st A Hemmingsen (30)
2nd S Newman (18)
3rd G Taylor (15)

RATHKEALE QUADRANGULAR

This year our athletic team was very fortunate to be invited to a Quadrangular competition with Wellington College, Wanganui Collegiate and Rathkeale College at Rathkeale's superb grounds just north of Masterton. The opportunity to compete with other schools who share our values of self-discipline, a high standard of appearance and a commitment to excellence in competition was the highlight of the season for us.

A special thanks must go to Wellington College families who billeted our boys for two nights. A feature of the competition itself was the performance of our Under 14 team with Dackers, King, Duske, Bothwell and Pocock particularly prominent, while the 4 x 100m relay teams finished first and second. In the Under 15 grade, Hooton, Lane and Ennor were all clear winners - Ennor clearing 1.80m in the High Jump off a grass run-up! Ireland and Davis were the best of our Under 16 team, while Newman, McColl and Woodward were winners in the Senior Grade.

ZONE DAY

As last year, our boys competed against Rosmini College and Takapuna Grammar at Onewa Domain for places in the North Harbour finals. With over 60% of the first and seconds, our boys clearly performed well on the day.

ST KENTIGERN TRIANGULAR

A 7.15 am start on Monday March 12 and our team was off in peak-hour traffic across the Bridge to Pakuranga for a triangular contest with St Kentigern College and Whangarei Boys High School. Our Seniors had a narrow win over St Kents, though we went under to them in the Under 16 Grade. But it was in the Under 15 and particularly Under 14 grades where our team was dominant. Final totals were:

WESTLAKE : 590
ST KENTIGERN : 475
WHANGAREI : 217

NORTH HARBOUR CHAMPIONSHIPS

This was again held under lights at East Coast Bays Stadium on the last Friday of daylight saving, with the more specialist events held the following Tuesday afternoon. Boys from our Southern Zone gained exactly half the total placings, and Westlake athletes achieved the impressive record of 34% of firsts, 47% of seconds and 40% of thirds - 44% of all total placings.

NORTH ISLAND

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Another long bus trip, this time to Hastings for our 33 boys who were selected for the 1990 North Island Championships, held over one and a half days at Nelson Park. It was a very successful championship for the North Harbour team and especially for our Westlake boys, 17 of whom finished with rankings in the top eight of their event. Few schools would have ever compiled such a record in the Senior Grade: 8th in 400m; 1st, 2nd and 4th in 800m; 1st in 1500m; 2nd in 2000m Steeplechase; 3rd and 8th in 3000m.

Top eight performances included:

JUNIOR

Duske	4th 400m (56.75s)
Bothwell	3rd 1500m (4m 36.19s)
Rogers	7th Javelin (36.72m)
Pocock	8th Javelin (35.88m)
Adams	7th High Jump (1.55m)

INTERMEDIATE

returned from Hastings. It was the first time our Junior team had won its section (although we came close in 1986), 9 points ahead of Kelston; our Intermediates were just pipped for third as were the Seniors. Overall we were third, just 3 points behind second placed Auckland Grammar, with Kelston overall winners. Particular mention must be made of our Junior and Senior 800m teams both of whom lapped some runners. For the record our Junior team placings were:

3 x Shot Put	1st
4 x 100m	3rd
4 x 200m	2nd
4 x 400m	1st
4 x 800m	1st
3 x Hurdles	3rd
4 x Medley	2nd

School Representative Ties were awarded to nine boys who bettered tough qualifying standards - Newman and Amey in two events each; and for the first time School Athletic Medals were awarded to boys who had achieved the best performance in each of the sixteen athletic events while representing Westlake.

At the time of writing, the School team is starting its preparation for the New Zealand Championships to be held in Wellington in the first weekend of December. Special thanks must go to all those Staff and parents who have helped us achieve so much in 1990 - particularly Mr Wilson, Mr Ivanov, Mr Masterton, Mr Timms, Mrs Brown - without them the boys could not have realised their potential.

A GRADE RELAYS

A very enjoyable, well-organised Relay competition was held at Mt Smart two days after we

YACHTING

After the efforts of last year's team, we thought that it would be a hard act to follow.

Our goal for this year was to win the National contest without losing a race. We once again went through the round robin undefeated, and progressed through the finals until we had won the National title. However we still had one race to complete, the finals, which we lost to our old rivals Macleans College, it had no bearing on our result but affected the minor placings.

Before going to the Nationals in New Plymouth we had to sail in the Auckland Championships, which was basically Fleet racing. Westlake completely dominated this regatta winning six of the seven trophies at the contest. We lost the seventh trophy on a simple Port/Starboard incident.

Once again our stiffest opposition came from Rangitoto College in the zone finals. After the zone finals the team settled down to some regular training off Milford.

Over Easter I took a group of three boys to Lake Macquarie which is just north of Sydney. Robert Cleghorn, Andrew Pardington and Brent Goldsworthy spent five days racing in the New South Wales Combined High Schools Regatta. Sailing borrowed Lasers, the trio sailed well under some unusual conditions. Robert sailed consistently to finish third, Andrew unfortunately could not sail on one day due to illness, otherwise he would have been well up also.

It was an interesting trip which gave me a chance to watch the "Pacer" dinghy sailing and observe the conditions in the area where the Westlake team would sail, if we won the National Contest in the May holidays. I was also able to meet some of the locals and see first hand the facilities available. This certainly made the trip to Australia for the Inter-Dominion contest a lot easier and took a lot of the tension out of the contest.

Lake Macquarie is the largest salt water lake in the Southern Hemisphere. The lake is fairly shallow with a maximum depth of 11 metres. The small channel which leads out to the ocean is also shallow and a few of the larger yachts are trapped in the lake, which has an area similar to Lake Taupo, with lots of bays and lovely anchorages particularly, in the southern end.

Whilst I was there at Easter, I was able to see first hand the tremendous damage caused by the earthquake in Newcastle, a short distance from Belmont. The earthquake received very little publicity because very few people were killed, but if the bus drivers had not been on strike a lot more people would have been killed as the verandah over the main bus terminus came down. Fortunately the city was almost deserted at the time. It is going to take several years to completely repair all of the damage caused by the quake.

The Belmont 16ft Sailing Club is an interesting place, they have 12,000 members, only 200 of these are sailing members who are in control of the club. The rest of the members who generate a turnover of $A21 million per year via the bars, restaurants and gambling machines are social members. Membership for the club is $7 per year. The sailing members have a budget of $A200,000 per year, unfortunately very little of this goes to the junior members. I couldn't help thinking "imagine what we could do at our yacht club in terms of training for juniors". The senior sailing members who sail a handful of 16ft skiffs which cost up to $30,000 each are paid to start, more to finish and even more if you win.

Unfortunately for the Australians they have too many different classes and virtually no monotypes. At the Easter Combined High Schools Regatta there were over 40 different classes of yachts.

When the team arrived in Australia we spent two days in Sydney sightseeing. We visited Darling Harbour, Sydney Tower, rode on the monorail, the Manly Hydrofoil and the underground trains. We walked for miles around the central city and visited Bondi beach.

Some of the shopping was great but you have to look hard to find bargains these days.

The Hard Rock Cafe was well worth the visit, I am glad I did not have to pay the food bills. We seemed to walk from one food shop to the next - a hungry lot!!!

Epiglass Australia organised our transport from Sydney to Belmont (Lake Macquarie), this was the start of some great hospitality from Epiglass, and our Australian hosts.

Saturday was practice day and we were given three Pacers to look after and sail, this was great and completely nullified any advantage the Australians may have had by sailing their own boats. There was a good sailing breeze blowing and the team very quickly got into boat handling skills and turning the yachts to get good boatspeed.

After the first day the team was pleased with progress and delighted with the boats especially compared to the sunburst.

Sunday was Day One of the Australian Championships. There was a good breeze of 15-18 knots and Westlake had three invitation races and had two wins but narrowly lost to old rivals, Warners Bay High who were representing New South Wales. This was a plus because it made the team realise that they were not unbeatable.

On Monday the breeze was blowing over the maximum of 20 knots which meant the cancellation of sailing for the day.

On Tuesday Westlake practised on their own to allow the Australian's to get on with their National Championships. Once again the breeze was up and eventually an Australian Champion was found (after several protests).

The victors and Australian Champions were from the Anglican Church Grammar School in Brisbane.

I felt sorry for the South Australians who had travelled from Port Lincoln, which is in the Great Australian Bight. They sailed well only to loose out in the protest room - we know the feeling only too well!

Wednesday dawned fine and calm without a cloud in the sky.

The first race started with the minimum amount of breeze. Westlake immediately took command of the race and steadily pulled away. Unfortunately they were a 100 metres from the finish line when time ran out.

We then went ashore for lunch after which the breeze was a little more steady and we were able to start again. Westlake once again showed that they were going to dominate, despite some confusion over the starts.

By Thursday night Westlake had eight very convincing wins.

On Friday T.V.3 arrived and after waiting around for the breeze Westlake put on another decisive win for the T.V. crew. The teams then put on a show for the T.V. cameras whilst the course was changed.

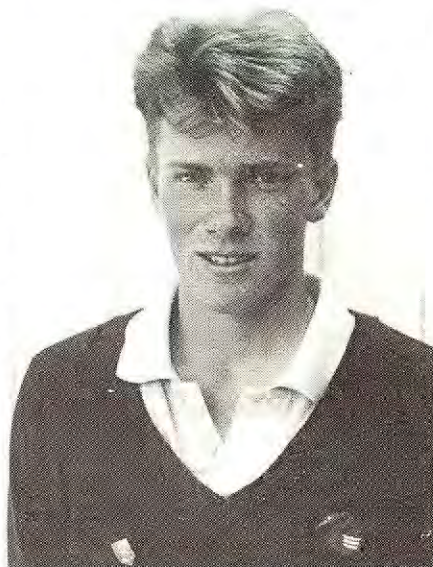

After lunch Westlake completed the whitewash winning the remaining two races.

The involvement of Epiglass Australia has given the Australians a real boost and they are determined to beat their Kiwi rivals.

The team were great ambassadors for New Zealand and Westlake, we can all be very proud of them.

It is difficult to single out members of the team but Mark Bond as team captain has done a magnificent job both on and off the water. Kelcey Gager, as team reserve, deserves special mention. It is not easy to sit on the shore while your mates are out sailing.

The weekend after returning to New Zealand, Westlake had organised a teams racing regatta on Lake Pupuke which involved schools from all over the North Island. With a good sailing breeze we managed to get through 60 races in the weekend.

The regatta was a great success, much appreciated by the schools involved, who were keen to get some competition for their teams.

The onshore socialising and the delicious doughnuts, made for a pleasant weekend for everyone involved. A great way to round off a very successful year, with Westlake's two teams first and second.

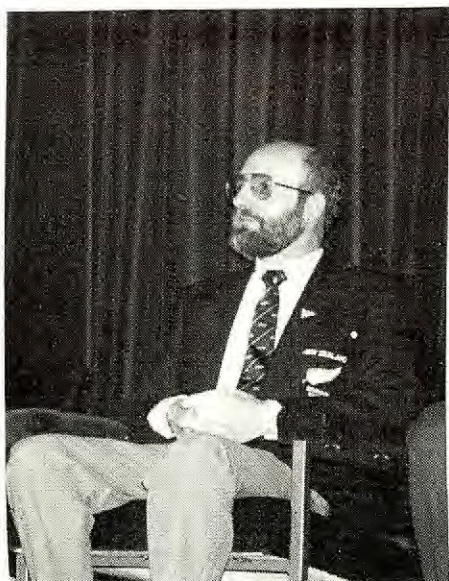

A highlight of the year was the visit to Westlake by Sir Michael Fay, who presented the New Zealand Representative blazers to the team. It was great talking to him and he was certainly impressed with Westlake Boys, and the yachting team. I am sure that it will not be his last association with Westlake and members of the yachting team.

Next year Westlake will have another good team. There is plenty of keen yachtsmen in the third form who will all be vying for a place in the team.

Another top yachtsman from Westlake went to Italy in July to represent New Zealand in the World Europe Dinghy Class Championships. Allan Coutts, sailing his first season in Europe, was the best of the Kiwis with a best placing of 3rd in a field of 410 boats. Team member Michael Knauf won the Europe class Olympic regatta at Easter, beating rival Allan Coutts.

The Westlake B team, which beat the A team at the regatta on the lake, was made up of three very experienced skippers, Mark Bond, Robert Cleghorn and Allan Coutts with young crew members, Matthew Brown, Derek Hooper and Nicolas Taylor. The A team, which is basically our 1991 team, was Michael Knauf, John Rodgers and Peter Waring with crew members Edward Smythe, Kelcey Gager and Craig Brown.

Finally I would like to say thank you to the parents, who have really supported the team and helped with all of the fundraising, it really was all very worthwhile and most appreciated.

REPORT

This year has been a most disappointing one for a team that looked to have the ability to end near the very top of the schools' competition but from the outset they failed to achieve anywhere near their potential. A very strong batting line-up that looked as if it could go on forever, never got it together so that the bowling attack was always under pressure to keep the team in the game and this it did very well. The XI ended up in the bottom six of the competition for the second time this decade but the sceptre of relegation has been hopefully dispelled by two "coming right" wins following upon a promising performance in the traditional match against Tauranga Boys College.

The season got off to a less than promising start when we decided to bat first on a wet but fast drying pitch at Kings against a very good pace attack that got us on the rack early and never let us off. Kings played very well and put together an excellent performance to record their first win against us for years. The bowling attack wrecked Rangitoto College but then the batting got a good dose of the "jitters" against a competent slow left-armner who reduced us to the pushing and poking that wiped us out against Kelston back in the ----- for 100 but then we were wiped out on a "turner" by our own unwillingness to take the attack to their off-spinner. Foot-behind on the crease line, that is where we died for 51.

We needed to win against Rosmini to make the top six but the batting always struggled against an accurate medium pace attack that kept on keeping on.

The bottom half of the schools competition is characterized by teams that seek to win the toss and then set about batting as long as they can to ensure that they are not beaten. They never set out to win but rather to avoid losing and this was certainly the case in the matches against St Peters and Sacred Heart both of which ended mid way through the second day of the match with no possibility of an outright result because the first day had been so slow.

Tauranga Boys match was an opportunity to encourage the batting attack to adopt a more positive attitude and get it all together. From the outset we always had the initiative, a couple of declarations keeping the match alive but an over worked bowling could not finish them off to record an outright win.

None of the batting attack had a good year as evidenced by the aggregates but some had a depressing season. Rick Pierce had a year with the bat to forget forever but fielded as well as ever in the gully. Dean Parker found what can happen when you get on the front foot and scored a very sound 68* against SHC as a result. His spare parts bowling will be very handy next year. This should have been Matthew Reinholds year but an unlucky ankle injury kept him out until late March and how he was missed when he showed what he could do on an excellent batting track at SHC and took 107 off a very accurate attack. It was a superb innings of a quality rarely seen at this level of cricket.

Paul Boyle captained the team with a rare maturity and kept his head when others were losing theirs! He played several vital, gritty innings to keep the batting together and it was never over until Paul was out. He is a most polished 'keeper, a clear thinker, very cool under pressure, an outstanding leader.

Andrew (Bacco) Buckton played every game as if it was to be his last. His well directed medium pace kept all batsmen under heavy pressure and he well deserved his 24 wickets in the first half. Bacco has scored less with the bat than he would have wished but he has had a great year for the XI.

Phil Anderson's leg-spinners bored holes in the head of every batsmen in the grade, his removal of the Kelston captain being a case in point, but he never managed to grab the big wicket bag of last year. He too played a couple of very good innings with the bat as against Rangitoto but his refusal to believe he can bat has resulted in under-achievement in this aspect of his game.

Kim Struthers' left-arm quicks have always had the batsman under pressure. He bowled very well against Rosmini and certainly showed a better return. Kim's hitting power never had a chance because he always seemed to come in when the team was on the defensive. These two have been the team adhesives who make everyone smile when the cricket is tight.

Richard Burgess' cricket has matured as the year has gone on, his 34 against Rosmini saving us all from acute embarrassment.

Shaun Perkinson joined late when the shortage of runs had to be solved. A batsman with a superb 'eye' he can tear any bowling attack to shreds in a very short time as he showed us against Tauranga but he has the ability to concentrate for long periods and build an innings as shown to outstanding effect against St Peters when he scored 61 very sound runs. Richard and Shaun will be the backbone of the team next year.

Glenn Morland and Scott Francis will look back on their introduction to 1st XI cricket and see it all as a bad dream. They are both very talented players but had to bat at critical moments in many games when the top of the batting had gone for too few runs and the team was struggling - a situation few would wish to bat in. Glenn has bowled well and kept a good line while Scott's 'keeping was superb when Paul was away. A tough start for both of them but they have the character to survive. Paul Hitchcock is a medium pacer of real promise and given the opportunity will show his real class as an opening batsman next year.

Perhaps the third term matches will provide the XI with the opportunity to reveal its real potential.

2nd XI

COACH D.J. KNOWLES

PLAYED: 3
WON: 2
LOST: 0
DRAWN: 1

TEAM LIST: R. Burgess, S. Perkinson, C. Bellingham, C. Gherardi, S. Neal, D. Glackin, R. Lee, M. Hitchcock, D. McKenzie, A. Chisholm, S. Yates

This years' second eleven led by Captain, Cory Bellingham has played very well throughout the season, losing only one game.

Our main strike bowlers, A Chisholm and D Strachan have done a great job for the School, with support from D Glackin, M Hitchcock, C Bellingham and C McKenzie. Clement Gheradi excelled in the field as did Scott Neal. The top batting order has been changed a number of times so everyone would get a fair bat. C McKenzie has shown that not only can he bowl but has great potential to be a good batsman as well. We were sorry to see Richard Lee leave the team, which was a disappointment.

Clement Gheradi and Scott Neal have not had a great season with the bat, although Scott has contributed with some handy scores. Clement has not had any great innings in the 2nd XI but hopefully we will see a dramatic change in his batting approach. Sean Perkinson did a good job as Captain in the first part of the season.

Overall the 2nd XI played well (sort of) and hopefully can continue winning more games.

Thanks to Mr Knowles for taking time out to coach us and giving us encouragement during our games.

Cory Bellingham.

2nd XI

TEAM: J. Kearney (Capt.), M. Smith, R. Ruegg, C. Lewis, J. Sampson, D. Ironside, C. Carlton, G. Bond, M. George, S. Betts, S. Haycock, B. Jones, A. Townsend.

This team played against the First XIs of other schools and consequently found one or two opposition players who made their task difficult. In the first half of the year the team had two first inning losses and an outright loss. However there were some good performances. Jeremy Kearney captained the team with considerable skill. He also, was the outstanding batter. Good batting performances were also achieved by Douglas Ironside, Cameron Carlton and Cameron Lewis. Sam Betts, Michael George and Stewart Haycock bowled steadily but without the ability to dominate the opposition.

3A

COACH MR A. DENNIS

TEAM LIST: B. Clarke, G. Pennycook, P. West, G. Glackin, P. Knight, M. Pilmer, P. Mason, M. Tucker, R. Hewitt, M. Bell, F. Biddle, J. Marshall

This was a very young team of up and coming fourth and fifth formers playing in an open grade of cricket. Many of the opposing players were sixth and seventh formers who had size and experience on their side. However in our first two games we came very close to winning, only falling at the last post. The side has many valuable players who will contribute much to cricket at Westlake in the future.

Bevin Clarke, as Captain, had an outstanding season. His bowling was sharp and incisive and opposing players accorded him the utmost respect. Bevin's batting was also of the highest quality. Other outstanding batsmen were Paul West, Glen Pennycook, Chris Glackin all of whom scored runs at various times.

Overall the games played were very competitive and although the end results may not always have been in our favour, the experience gained by the players was very valuable and will hold them in good stead for the future.

5A

TEAM: L. Jackson (Capt.) C. Barnett, D. McBride, T. Crabb, S. Johnson, S. Cox, S. Graham, J. Bolton, B. Peters D. Llewellyn A. Campbell T. Danks G. Green.

After four matches the 5A cricket team is unbeaten and looking like championship winners. The team of Third and Fourth Formers has strength in both batting and bowling and has out-fielded all its opponents so far. The depth of the batting was shown in the only close game so far, against Takapuna Grammar where Alex Campbell and Todd Danks put on over 40 runs in our last partnership with Alex unbeaten on 56.

Other highlights of the season so far include James Bolton 7 wickets against Rosmini and Terry Crabb, 51 runs against Rangitoto.

RESULTS:

ROSMINI 25
WESTLAKE 123-6

RANGITOTO 88
WESTLAKE 127

TAKAPUNA 156

5B1

COACH: A.B. HAGGITT

PLAYED: 5
WON: 5

TEAM LIST: R. Ambler, S. Bond, A. Gardner, P. George, S. Graham, M. Guest, R. Haycock (Capt), J. Hitchcock, R. Jane, R. Penberthy, G. Stansfield, T. Watson

The 5B1 cricket team quickly settled into becoming a very competent unit with a good depth of talent in all departments. The team was ably led by Russell Haycock who set a fine example with both bat and ball notching two half centuries in the process. Opening batsmen Richard Penberthy and Robert Jane on several occasions got the team off to a solid start. Glen Stansfield had the best bowling average for the term although the wickets were fairly evenly shared amongst the bowlers. The teams' fielding was always sound and some good catches were made.

5B2 had a slow start to the season with a disappointing loss to Dilworth in the first game. After some good batting by Shane Taylor, we needed 34 runs off the last over but big-hitting Chris Newson could manage only three 4's before being caught on the boundary.

The next game, against the top Auckland Grammar side, saw a vast improvement in performance. With Westlake bowling and fielding brilliantly - Ross Winsborough knocked the stumps down with a throw from the boundary - Auckland Grammar were held to 85 runs. We responded with 88 off 20 overs for a decisive win. Andrew Niven top scored with 33.

Unfortunately our form faded against the Auckland Grammar No.2 team and we lost by 58 runs.

The Westlake 5B1 team overawed us a little, and we could not contain their aggressive batting. We lost by 103 runs, despite having 13 batters!

In the final game we really dealt to Dilworth by dismissing them for 54 runs and then scoring 67 for the loss of no wickets. Top batting performances were recorded by Andrew Niven (retired on 36) and Tim Ruthven. Phillip Stone bowled with real class - taking a wicket with his first ball and finishing with 6 wickets for 2 runs.

Overall a most enjoyable series of games, and many thanks are owed to the extra players who joined the team and provided such able help when we were short of players. 5B1, watch out next summer!

6A cricket had a very successful season against Rosmini, Dilworth and Auckland Grammar, winning 2 and losing a close game to Auckland Grammar.

Topping off the batting list was Sean and Greig with scores of 34,21 and 14. He was closely followed by Simon Mulcahy with 15,30 and 4. Third equal was Mark Jolly and Richard Hart with 40 runs.

The most consistent bowlers of the season were Brad Beddall, Simon Mulcahy and Sean Greig.

Beddell	22	3	56	13
Mulcahy	23	6	50	6
Greig	15	3	38	5

The team was hit hard with inquiries to Aaron McKeown, Brenden Neil, Simon Turner and Simon Mulcahy.

Simon Mulcahy met with a terrible accident in the last game against Auckland Grammar. He was fielding in close when the ball came hurtling towards him and hit him in the eye which caused the game to be abandoned and Auckland ended up winners.

Our team and coach Mr Whitfield would like to thank many of our parents and relatives who came and watched most of our games. Special thanks to Mr Mulcahy who usually took the score book, or assisted umpiring when Mr Whitfield needed a rest.

I would also like to thank Mr Whitfield for coaching us through the season. He taught the team a great deal. Thank you.

The start of the season in the first term was a slow one with the new team getting to know one another. Once we settled down we had some good wins over Orewa and St Peters.

In the third term we had some promotions up to the 6A team like Drew Hobson, Matthew Lawrence and Anton Gargiulo, but they were replaced with new members to the team.

Our coach Mr Rea also deserves a lot of credit for coaching us through this year also. He has been a great help during Wednesday Sport, giving us tips and skills.

Our first game was against Kristin, at Kristin, which we lost but with some good scores like Stephen Alexander 30 for 6 wickets.

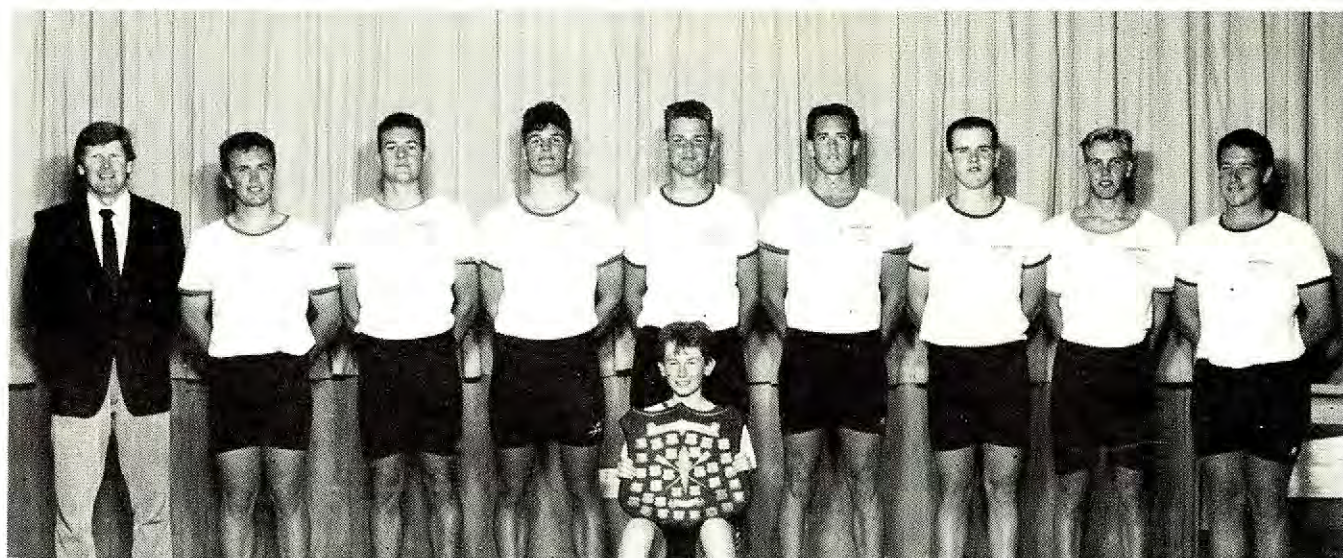

Our second game was at home which we lost to Orewa with Joshua Toms scoring 22.

We hope to finish the season with some good wins in the future.

The 1990 season for the Senior 8 was one of great fun and great results.

Early training started with a fairly large and enthusiastic bunch of guys who were looking forward to a successful year. Racing started and at these short regattas we proved that no matter what crews we put on the water, we were a force to be reckoned with.

With good rows at Karapiro before Christmas, we went into our holiday break satisfied and with great confidence for the upcoming championship at the end of the season.

Camp came around at the end of January and was enjoyed by all. Here the crew made extreme progress to set themselves up for the rest of the season.

Shortly afterwards the final crew was chosen and we settled into our real work. The crew knew what it would take in training to be a competitive force in races and were thus totally dedicated and motivated in making sure that we were as well prepared as possible.

The whole season was a success for the U.19 A crew both on and off the water and the results achieved re-affirm this.

We had many good races with crews such as Tauranga, Auckland Grammar and Wanganui Collegiate throughout the season. Earlier championship races saw us gain second in both the A.R.A.Champs and the N.Z. Champs to the Tauranga crew. The crew continued to improve as the season progressed. This showed at the North Island, where the crews desire to win and competitiveness saw the orders reversed for us to beat Tauranga and win. As this race was just a short time before Maadi, we went to Twizel with great confidence.

The Maadi Cup was the highlight of the season. Although we didn't win, the crew showed immense spirit and skill to come home in second place to a very strong and "slightly" larger Christs College eight. Also the race consolidated our position as top crew in the North Island.

Although the fours were disappointing, in that we did not pick up a medal, we showed our skill in being the only crew represented by two fours in the final and gaining 4th and 5th places. The two U19 fours also gained 2nd and 4th at the North Island Champs previously and also a 3rd at the A.R.A. Champs.

The 1990 season was a great success and will be a very hard one to beat.

Congratulations to Ryan Tipler for being chosen in the New Zealand Junior Eight.

Congratulations also goes to Duncan Garner for his support and humour given to the crew throughout the year. Also for his superb effort in becoming the first ever Westlake sculler to reach a sculling final at the Maadi Cup regatta.

Thanks also to Mike Stanley, as without his support and coaching over the season, none of the crews success would have been possible.

UNDER 15

When, at the start of the season, we were introduced to rowing, we were overawed by the larger than life characters we found. Mr Stanley with his jokes and eyebrows, 12 foot seniors looming over us, and experienced Under 16's. No one, least of all us, thought we were ever going to be able to get into the boat without mishap, to say nothing of winning a race!

But as the training progressed we came to know each other and the boat, thanks to our coach, Peter Iversen. We learnt in due time about awfully complicated things, such as riggers, gates, and of course, the infamous crab. Who could have thought that such a small word could convey so much meaning; there you are, rowing your heart out, thinking you are a pro, when suddenly your oar jumps up and hits you in the face, (alas, it happens to the best of us, and that certainly is not me).

But the fun could not go on forever, and the big day approached: our first race! Mr I. gave us a pep talk, "You are the ugliest crew I have seen etc. etc., and we were off. The rest of the club season is a blur of wins, bus trips, abuse and retaliation.

Finally the Christmas holidays arrived, and we were given a couple of weeks off to mend in hospital. It seemed no time at all until I was tied back into my strait-jacket and hauled off to camp. The camp was fun - if you like getting up at 5 am and eating retreads and Milo for breakfast then rowing from Whakamaru to Cape Reinga and back before lunch.

After we had grown some new skin to replace that which had been lost from our palms by rowing them to the bone, we started competing again and had some spectacular wins. On Lake Karapiro we came second in the Mens Under 23 Eights amidst 20 metre white caps, and showed our skill in the fours. But we could still not win an eights race, and it was not until the Head of the Harbour Regatta that we showed our true colours by coming first in the Under 15 Eights, first in the Under 16 - Division 2, and first in a four.

At the North Island Championships we went straight through to the finals in our Under 15 eight and got away to a good start, concentrating on beating the St Stephens crew just outside of us. We thought we had the race, but were so intent on St Stephens that we did not notice Auckland Grammar sneak up on the inside to take first place and had to settle for 2nd.

In the fours the number one crew came fourth in the final, and the two crew came first by four lengths in the Petite final. In the Under 17 Novice eight we made it to the final and came fifth, beating Auckland Grammar (ha ha). In the Under 17 Novice four, which included two former Under 15's turned Under 16, we came through for a convincing win in the Petite final.

We went home for a day, then arose the next morning and went forth to conquer the South Island.

After flying to Christchurch we then faced a four and a half hour trip to Twizel, over some of the most boring country you have ever seen, (although Mr Stanley kept trying to convince us it was interesting). We arrived, and spent the next three days unloading the boats, and training. Our eights race was a straight final, so we spent most of our time cheering, with Jared the 'Body' Caldwell leading with his famous chant. We had some heats for the fours and two crews got in the final, placing third and fifth. In the Under 15 eights race we got off to a good start, and held the lead until about the 750 metre mark when Auckland Grammar did a piece and moved ahead. Whatever we did we could not catch them, and they won by a canvas. We got our medals, but we were all pulling long faces until we realised we had come second in a National Event.

We were a squad, and could not have made it without each other. The winners should not just get the credit, but also those who helped them along, that way we all benefit from each others success.

We would like to especially thank Mr Peter Iversen for giving up his time to spend with us.

We caught crabs, we were called 'novvies', we were rumbled, we won, we lost, but all in all it was a good season. As Mr I. said, "Fill every minute with sixty seconds worth of distance rowed", we did our best and it was the best we could do.

UNDER 16

A mere eleven members of the Westlake U15's rejoined to become the U16's. Little was known about the season ahead, but few though we were, we began training with determination and the strive for success.

Strict training schedules kept us on our feet and there was no time for stragglers. We knew that we were a privileged few, a group that so many failed to gain acceptance into. Our goals were set high very early in the season and it was up to us, whether or not we wanted to win or loose.

Looking back now, I can see that we had a pretty smooth season and we were very lucky to have the coaching of Grant Robinson. His time and effort that contributed to us, we all know included valuable working hours for him. He led us to our many victories and made us into fine rowers. All the times he would ride around the lake with us, pushing us for those few extra seconds less on our times, all of those hill sprints, those extremely tedious, sometimes devastating rows, all of this made us a real squad that lived and breathed success. We would like to acknowledge Grant's vast input into our squad and would like to thank him very much.

Lest we forget though the reasons why we made it on time to morning training, the pockets that gave us endless mountains of money, making it possible for regattas - where would our crew be without lasagne and coleslaw? What would we do without our famous New Zealand renowned coral T-shirts and our bright, bright, bright orange fluoro caps? Yes, our parents we thank also.

It was after the Whakamaru camp that the squad was to be put in their permanent crews. After days of arduous rows, Grade had made his decision, a decision which proved to be very well thought out. The crews were as follows:

Under 16 Eight: I.Gould (Cox) J.Caldwell
G.Roberts C.Masters N.Lannigan A.Andrew
E.Benton M.Tafua R.Grover

Under 17 Eight: G.Maisey (Cox) J.Caldwell

A.Andrew E.Benton M.Tafua N.Pollard

Under 16C Four: G.Maisey (Cox) C.Isherwood

All of the crews selected made great achievements and proved to the public and rival schools, that Westlake weren't to be taken lightly. Our successes began from the first school regatta (Westlake Junior Regatta) right through to the Maadi Cup. A few results were selected and are as follows:

Westlake Junior Regatta:

Under 16 Eight - Westlake Cup winners

Under 16 Four - 1st

Te Awamutu Regatta:

Under 16 Eight - 3rd

Under 16 Four - 1st

Under 16 Eights - 1st Inaugural winners of the Electrocorp Production Cup

Under 16A Four - 2nd

Under 16C Four - 3rd Petite Final

In the New Zealand Championships at Twizel again the U16's of Westlake performed with out-standing results. In the U17 level of racing, the U17 composite crew gained a placing in the heats and made it into the final. Our U16C Four came 3rd in their petite. Our A Four and B Four crews shook their opponents by gaining 1st and 2nd in the same heat. The A Four crew came 2nd in the actual final with the B crew not far behind. Our most prestigious result though was the winning of the U16 Eights race. It was a great effort by this Eight and it brings a promising future to Westlake rowing.

2nd Row: C.Masters, N.Lanigan, E.Benton, M.Tafua, R.Grover.
1st Row: J.Caldwell, G.Roberts, A.Andrew, I.Gould.

On the whole we U16's have had a fine season. Not every day ran smoothly though and we weren't without our setbacks. Not a single training day was easy, but they weren't without their laughs and I'm sure everyone has great memories of this rowing season.

For the Premier Basketball team, 1990 was a season where full potential was never quite realised. At the start of the season the team had the necessary individual skills to take it to the top but lacked in team work.

During the season a lack of commitment from some senior players resulted in mixed performances. 7 wins and 7 losses in competition. The season highlights were a fourth placing at the Auckland Regionals, losing narrowly in the semi finals and just missing out on qualifying to the Nationals. Another highlight for the season were games played against visiting American teams. The matches against them produced some excellent basketball with the visitors winning out narrowly both times.

A special thanks to Robin McIver, coach, and Bryan Smith, manager, for the time and effort they put into the team. If the team had listened more to their wisdom we may have reached our potential. Also thanks to the parents who supported the team providing the after-match functions etc.

TEAM: M. Senior (Capt) A. Hooks A. Webber P. McKay N. Kean S. Cullen C. Bellingham A. Stilton

The Senior B squad of 1990 had a very mixed range of talents. Some players had more abilities than others, but altogether produced quite a fun-loving team. Although practices were really a myth the team worked well together to produce some great performances. The team lost more games than they won but had fun mixed in with a bit of competition.

Some good performances were seen from everyone in the team, especially from one or two players who could have easily played at Senior A level, we will not name them - just watch out next year. The home games seemed to be the best. The team was used to the rings and additional excitement was provided by A. Hooks and M. Senior who did some spectacular dunks in the warm-ups. S. Cullens 3 point shots seemed to never stop, even though he looked like he was playing netball. All in all, the team enjoyed the year. Watch for some players next year.

JUNIOR

Coach: Mr PERKINSON

Team Members: N Stockman, J Stewart, J Pocock, A Tana, K Wilson, R Maata, G Morris, S Lin, A Adams, J Conrad, C Smith and H Chen.

Last year as third formers, the majority of this group we put together as a fairly green group with limited basketball experience. Their results reflected this with very few wins. This year the team started off the year with limited skills but what they lacked in individual stars they made up for in grit and determination. It was not unknown for Jason Pocock to come off the court with a bloodied face.

The team realised early that to win they had to give 100%, and in the majority of matches they did just that, reaching a creditable fourth placing at the end of the regular season. This qualified them for a semifinal playoff for a finals berth.

Their semifinal draw was against Rangitoto who had comprehensively beaten us in the regular season. The team were the most fired up for this game than for any other, and came back from an 11 point deficit at one stage to only lose by 4 points. A great effort from the whole team.

The Form 3B team provided a marvelous opportunity to many players to participate in basketball training and competition. The enthusiasm was overwhelming, and sometimes it was difficult to find a place for everyone in the team. Thirteen boys played during the season, some only played one or two games while others have moved to or from the A team.

The final placing of the team: 8th out of 11 is a good one - after all we beat the A teams of three schools. But the success does not only come from the results. Equally important is the development of the players. They improved their skills, tactical ability and team spirit during the three months.

We can not sum up the season without thanking all the people who helped. Many of the senior players who gave us a hand with coaching and refereeing. Particular thanks to Craig Foot, and Mr Crown, for the coaching; Piano Traders for the smart looking singlets; and the parents who supported us.

All in all, it was a worthwhile and enjoyable exercise and I hope to see many of the boys back on the basketball court next year.

were at a level above any other team in the grade. On three occasions during the season this team won games by over one hundred points and on no occasion did a team get within 20 points of our score.

The team's game plan revolved around

Jonathan Dil, Mark Sawyer and Hayden Murdoch. These three players have magnificent skills and a thorough knowledge of the game. However there was also brilliant back-up from the rest of the team and in particular Simon John and Michael Adams who developed their offensive and defensive rebounding skills. Nick Poland, Luke Gillespie and Wayne Boulton also made valuable contributions, especially on the fast break.

Overall the season was very successful and the team played some superb basketball.

RUGBY PLAYING BROTHERS

It is not unusual for brothers to play rugby for the same school, but to play in the same team doesn't happen very often under weight restricted conditions.

The 4A Rugby team this year had three sets of brothers playing in the team. This must surely be some sort of record within this school and has probably not been achieved in many other schools.

The Henrys (Geoff and Chris, Wilsons (Fraser and Duncan) and Haycocks (Stuart and Russell) were nearly joined by the Wheeler twins. Shane Wheeler was in 4A, with twin brother Justin playing for 4B. While both Geoff and Chris Henry were forwards, Fraser Wilson and Russell Haycock were loose forwards with Duncan Wilson being halfback and Stuart Haycock the fullback.

Although the brothers were not competing for the same positions, inter-brother rivalry was very intense on some occasions in the league warm-up sessions. Third former Chris Henry dumping Seventh form brother Geoff in the mud, and talkative Duncan Wilson telling Seventh form brother Fraser what to do, were interesting side-lights to practices. Unfortunately Stuart Haycock left in June to seek employment, before the Haycock family moved to Adelaide in August. We wish them well - the school will miss one of its sets of rugby brothers.

CHAMPIONSHIP POSITION: Winners of North Shore, Northern Region and runners up in the New Zealand Championship

TEAM: B. Kitchener, A. Harbour, B. Pierce, J. Cassidy, A. Gargiulo, C. Young

This team, called the Premier team, to distinguish it from the other senior teams, played in three major tournaments. Firstly, the North Shore Secondary Schools tournament where Westlake won comfortably, with a second Westlake team as runner-up; then the Northern Region Finals which were held this year at North Shore. Here the competition was much more intense but Westlake managed to emerge as the overall winners, after some tough games, particularly against Massey High School and Auckland Grammar. So, once again Westlake had qualified to represent the Northern Region and defend its title as the top New Zealand Secondary School in Badminton.

The New Zealand finals took place in Wellington on the weekend of 15 and 16 September.

The first contest was against the Waikato champions, Hamilton Boys High School. Westlake won this well 8-0 and then went on to play the Southern Region winners, Timaru Boys High School, who gave Westlake a much harder match, with Westlake winning 6-2. Then came the deciding match - almost a traditional fixture now - of the two unbeaten teams, Rongotai College from Wellington and Westlake the defending champions.

It was a long hard-fought contest with Rongotai coming out on top 5-3, clearly the better team on the day. Westlake had certainly felt the loss of their number three player, Brad Pierce, who had dislocated his knee in the National Championships in August, and were disappointed to be beaten. However number two of all New Zealand Secondary Schools is still a fine achievement!

We were particularly grateful for the coaching help given by Kerrin Harrison, an old-boy and member of the New Zealand Open Team.

The school is very proud of the achievements of ex pupils like Kerrin and Nick Hall, New Zealand Open Champion and Grant Walker, New Zealand Under 21 Champion; and we are equally proud of our present team captain, Blair Kitchener, who is New Zealand Under 18 Champion and is to represent New Zealand at the Junior World Championships in Jakarta. We wish him well. The support and encouragement of the North Shore Badminton Association has again been invaluable and is evidenced in these fine achievements.

JUNIOR & SENIOR

SENIOR A TEAM: Richard Pierce, Matthew Hamilton, Chris Abelskamp, Robert Kwan.

JUNIOR A TEAM: Brendan Marmont, Richard McIlroy, David Pierce, J. Prajogo

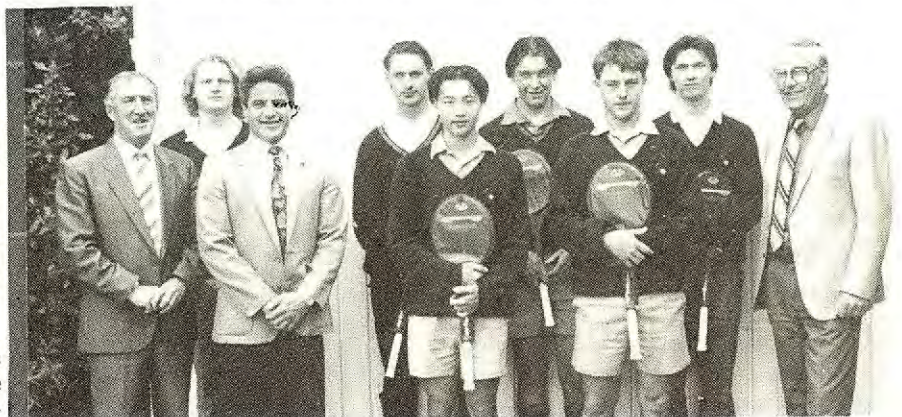

Five Junior teams and four Senior teams played regularly in after-school competition throughout Term 2. The outcome of this was that Westlake clearly won the Senior A competition and the Junior A competition. Both these teams had players of such ability that they could have been in the Premier team, had there not been so many high-calibre players available.

The two other Westlake Junior A teams gave a good account of themselves, providing the most effective opposition for the A1 team.

JUNIOR B1/B2: Andrew Hotter, Craig Short, Mark Strom, Bradley Crump (B1)
Matthew Comb, Robert Jones, Simon Sherpa, Jason Ireland (B2)

Both the Junior B teams improved as the season progressed and they always played enthusiastically.

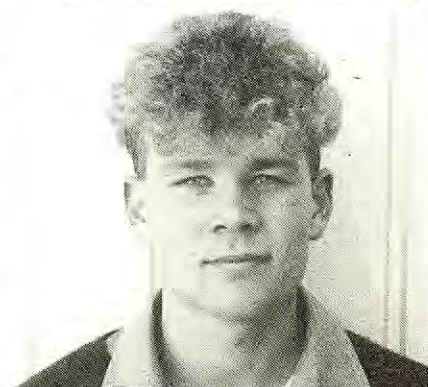

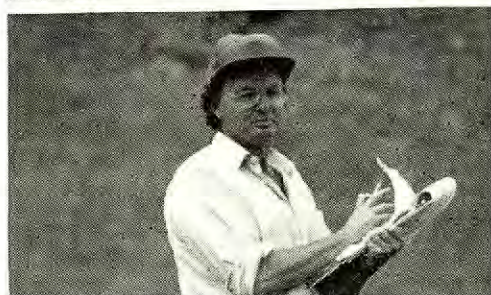

2nd Row: J.Prajogo, Mr.R.Overend (Coach).
1st Row: D.Pierce, B.Marmont, R.McIlroy.

The other 3 senior teams all performed creditably and improved their play, steadily. Some of the key players in these teams were: Rito Roesli, Michael Wong, Budi Dharmawan, Andy Santoso, Budi Cahyadi, Bailey Chan, Richard Price, Paul Thomson, Hamish McDonald, David Withers, Comptom Harding, Matthew Fordham, James Dawson and Michael Tafua.

Overall, there is tremendous depth of talent in badminton at Westlake. The teams were ably organised and managed by Mr Ellis and Mr Overend and we wish to thank the North Shore Badminton Association for all facilities and organisation - particularly Mrs M. Anderson.

Championship position; Auckland Champions
Runner-Up New Zealand Championships

It is with much pride and satisfaction to say that this year Westlake Squash has been very successful. 1990 has seen the team not only win the Auckland Championship for a record seventh consecutive year but also finish a galant second in the New Zealand Secondary Schools Championships in Hastings. This result is particularly satisfying because it has been the outcome of rebuilding a new team over the last three years back to the top of New Zealand Squash.

The year began with the usual trek every Friday afternoon for the interschool points competition, and our first major event was the Peter Williams Shield to find the Auckland champions. For the last four years we have beaten Auckland Grammar School 3-2 in the final after countless epic battles. So sticking with tradition we again beat this school we all love beating, in a great struggle by 3-2. However this was purely a warm-up to the title we were really aiming at - the New Zealand Secondary Schools Championships in Hastings, in which we were seeded 4th.

So on an early Saturday morning in mid-August we set off in the brand new school minibus for Hastings. We met scant opposition in our first few rounds winning 5-0 over Shirley Boys and Kaitia High. On the morning of the finals we met a dark horse in Whangarei Boys but the guys showed real spirit to beat them rather convincingly 4-1 and there was really a positive atmosphere from the team and numerous supporting parents who made the long trip. In the final we met Cargill High School, the giant killers of the contest from the deep south of New Zealand.

Sadly we were convincingly, yet closely beaten by 3-2 with the southern men having far too much depth especially lower in their order. But for me, and all the team, we felt immensely proud to have reached where we did. We had a great time, a magical team spirit and I felt this by far outweighed any disappointment of losing.

I would now like to thank the team individually for their commitment and reflect their effort. To the reserves Cameron and Hamish, you guys had a horrible job but seldom complained and were always supportive. Geoff Parker our No.5 is a cheerful and positive guy whose easygoing approach helped team cohesion. Ben Tones an imported fourth former who showed exciting talent for a young guy and at No.4 he played some good matches. Matthew Schofield earned the dubious nickname of Skoda while away, which is probably an injustice. Matt is one of the keenest and hardest triers I have watched, and this made him a great team man. Wayne Boulton's squash has matured over the last two years to the point where he is now on the verge of being a top New Zealand Junior. It is reassuring to know that I am leaving the team in good hands with Wayne still at school. All the best of luck in the future Wayne.

Finally to the most important members of the team - Mr Simpson and Mr Ferner. I am deeply indebted to the both of you for the support and opportunities you have given me, through Squash at Westlake. I can safely say that without you both, we would never have got to where we have, so a big thank you from all of us. Also thank you to the parents who made the trip this year - it was great support which we really needed and may have lacked in the past.

Paul Boyle
Captain

Footnote: Special mention must be made regarding the playing and leadership qualities of Paul Boyle, our Captain. He joined the team as a third former and played quickly through the grades to his present position of A2. This places Paul in the top one percent of the country's senior squash players.

This improvement is due to his total dedication to training and playing.

Paul commands respect from his peers. He leads by example but also is able to read situations quickly and offer appropriate advice in the manner best suited to each player.

It has been a pleasure knowing Paul. Everyone in the team wishes him well in his goal to attain New Zealand status in squash.

SENIOR A

TEAM: S Nicholson L Russell C Fartharly B Tones C Wilson P Curry

What a happy team we had, not the best team in the competition but not the worst. All the boys played to their best ability and towards the end of the season all the boys were playing better squash, especially Ben who has played a lot more squash in the past than all the other boys.

It is the old story, practice makes you better and I speak for all the boys, Logan, Calvin, Sean, Ben, Cameron and Paul. I would like to see them play a little more - may be join a Squash Club Retreat. I have really enjoyed managing the team and all the boys' humour, especially Sean or was it lies. Look forward to seeing you all next season.

Many thanks - Roland Russell

SENIOR B1

Team: N. Coach, A. Fox, J. Davis, M. Knighton

The season began well for the Senior B1 team with some very good wins. Yet the team was under a disadvantage with no reserve, so lost some valuable points with untimely defaults.

The team comprised two seventh formers and two fifth formers. Nick Couch was the teams "top gun" and achieved some very good results against tough opponents. Andrew Fox had a mixed season, but gained some valuable points. Jody Davis was well placed in the team, a real asset achieving a lot of points. Micheal Knighton produced a few shock wins, and proved to be the teams consistent backbone.

The team enjoyed the season, a little disappointed not to be placed better in the competition. This was compensated by the team convincingly disposing of the other Westlake Senior B2 team. Thanks are due to Mr Holt who assisted the team.

SENIOR B2

The team, comprising Wade Shotter, Clinton Haslem, Nicholas Brickell, Paul Hitchcock and Richard Haldane, started off the season well by beating Glenfield College, Takapuna Grammar and Rangitoto College.

However, these wins were not able to be sustained. We were beaten by Hato Petera, Northcote College and Westlake Senior B1 later in the season.

The most improved player was Richard Haldane who had started the season as a learner.

JUNIOR A

Record:

Played 12 Matches 10 Competition League
2 Traditional Inter-School Fixtures

Won: 7 Draw: 2 Lost: 3

League Result: 3rd in Auckland Secondary Schools Junior A Division, Northern Zone.

Team: (In playing order for competition games) Tim Hankins Todd Danks Micah Gammah Lee Kirsz Ryan McMahon

After last year's successful championship winning team, who all moved up to senior level for 1990, we rebuilt almost entirely with 3rd form players. Considering that the boys often played older and more experienced opponents, the results were encouraging and promise well for 1991.

Some players had difficulty adjusting to the peculiarities of the 15 minute American Scoring System. This was true, especially in the opening games, when two of the losses occurred because we rushed madly around the court instead of remaining cool and deliberate. Other snags encountered included the variable lighting and dark floor colouring of some courts. To their credit the boys fought back in the second round and forced draws against two of their previous victors and won against the third.

The most improved player was Todd Danks who by the end of the season had moved up to the number one rank, after starting the season at number three. Quick on his feet, Todd mixes a fierce determination to win with good retrieving and a hard forehand drive.

Tim Hankins has a nice easy style and had the tough job as top player during the competition of playing older and bigger opponents. Although never quiet, he never complained about his difficult team role. Tim has a lot of potential in the game providing he concentrates on the basics.

Micah Gammah is a loyal, cheerful team member, happy to play in any position. To improve his game and range of shots he should seek club membership and coaching.

Lee Kirsz showed the benefit of regular club play and throughout the season developed a robust, powerplay style, unfortunately not always successfully, or in the best interests of his racket.

Ryan McMahon began as a reserve but ended up as the always obliging, utility player, shuffling between the A and B teams, depending on where the greatest need was. With his continued involvement at school and club level, Ryan has a good future in the game.

Overall a good, pleasant bunch of boys who knitted together well as a team, and have the prospects of becoming champions in 1991.

JUNIOR B

Despite some obvious limitations of experience the boys were keen and the standard of play steadily improved during the season. Thanks to Mrs Wickenden and Mr Sutcliffe for so willingly transporting the team, often at short notice.

CYCLING

COACH: Mr Van der Griend Mr Goldsworthy

At the start of the year, Westlake had up to 60 cyclists competing in the 13 Km cycle races held during the Wednesday recreation period.

From these 60 cyclists emerged four teams of five riders who began to compete against other schools on Saturday mornings along Tamaki Drive.

Each team is racing against the clock. The fastest team to do the 16 Km course wins. The race requires each team to finish with at least 4 riders, the time being taken on the 4th rider across the finish line.

The A team started off the year by coming 2nd out of 35 teams behind the crack team of Auckland Grammar.

The B team were finishing 6th. However during the year the fine performance began to falter, similar to the previous year, due to individualism by some cyclists. e.g. forgetting to turn up, or "I've got a cold" or saving themselves for another race.

The attitude of those riders changed just three weeks before the Auckland Championships which were to be held on Sunday, 12 August.

With the help of Mr Goldsbury, three strong teams began to emerge.

The A team consisting of R. Harris, M. Fairweather, S. Harris, G. Hill and P. Herbert, competed in the Bigwood Trophy, which is designed for experienced riders who have raced not only for school but also in cycle clubs in Auckland. They finished a commendable 4th behind Auckland A, Auckland B and Auckland C team.

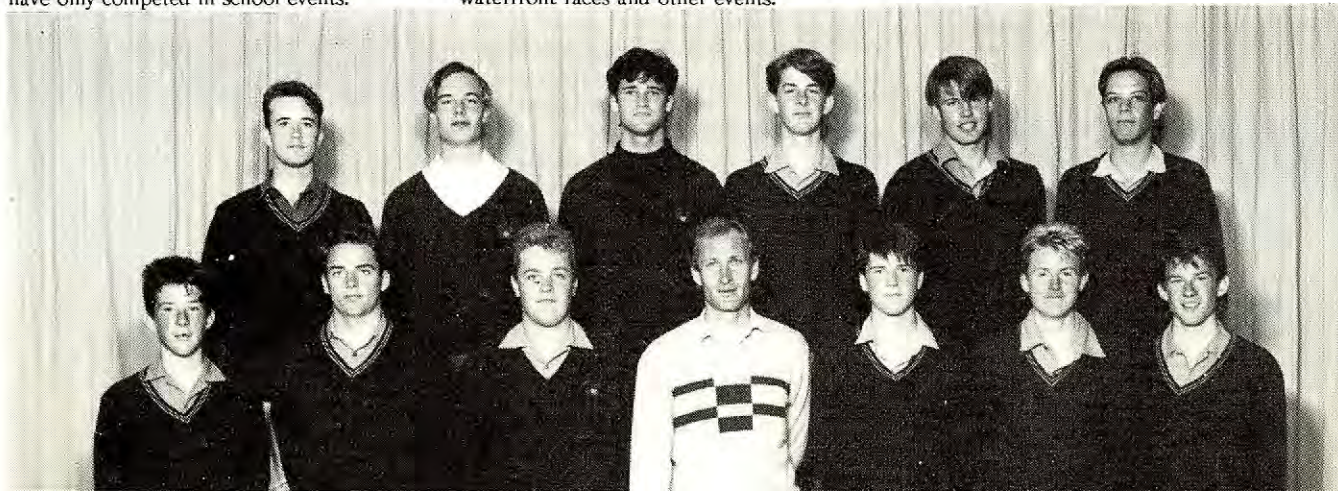

Westlake B consisting of D. Bailey, C. Lucas, M. Goldsworthy and K. Richardson, and Team C consisting of A. Webber, S. Hughes, T. Weir and D. Lean competed in the Betty Patridge Cup which is a race designed for riders who have only competed in school events.

The following day, Robert Harris, Mark Goldsworthy and Stewart Harris competed in a four stage race. Robert Harris finished 2nd in the criterium, 4th in the 39 Km Road Race, 5th in the Time Trial, 3rd in another Road Race of 50 Km giving him an overall position of 5th out of 80 riders.

A few weeks later Robert Harris competed in the Auckland Individual Road Race finishing with an impressive 3rd. He then was selected to ride for Auckland in the New Zealand teams race where the team won the event. Robert was also selected to ride the New Zealand Individual Road Race. Unfortunately, Robert with 30 others, crashed within 200 metres of the finish line. He however finished 12th.

Special thanks must be made to Mr Goldsworthy for his help in coaching and support of the teams. Also thanks must go out to all parents who had to sacrifice their Sunday mornings by getting up early to take their son/s and other people's sons out to the waterfront races and other events.

2nd Row: P. Herbert, C. Martin, D. Lean, S. Hughes, K. Richardson, A. Webber.

1st Row: S. Harris, M. Fairweather, T. Weir, Mr B. Van der Griend (Coach), G. Hill, M. Goldsworthy, R. Harris.

Absent: D. Bailey.

TEAM: S. Hadlee, S. Scott, G. Wignall, K. Nicholson, J. Scott, B. Hopwood, D. Wilson, V. Rowe, R. Wilson, H. Smales, E. Smyth, M. Smyth, J. Hunt, B. Barwick, A. Divers, F. Wilson, N. Wakefield, J. Beckett, H. Withers, C. Jennings, B. Jennings, M. Ridley, M. Shirtcliff, C. Bradnock.

This year North Island Secondary school Ski Championship was held at Whakapapa on Mt Ruapehu. A change from previous years. The event consists of two race days, Monday and Tuesday. Monday being a Giant Slalom course where competitors can gain a maximum of 20 points depending on their times. Tuesday is a Dual Slalom course where two racers race side by side to determine a winner. An extra 4 points for a win - 2 for a loss.

The team arrived on Friday night at Ohakune where our accommodation was. Saturday and Sunday were days where Mr Kerr and Mr Stanley could make final preparations for the naming of the race team. The race team was named Sunday night at the meeting. Monday dawned superb and conditions for racing were excellent. Our team performed very commendably with 4 of 5 racers gaining 18 and 19 points, which left us lying in 6th position out of 109 schools. An excellent effort.

Day 2, Tuesday was more of the superb conditions. Unfortunately the dual slaloms were not as good as we hoped. We gained 2 wins and 3 losses which meant we were placed 8th overall in the final standings. However this is the best the school has done in its history, which was fine effort by the boys racing. The other boys gave the racers great support which was a credit to them.

Both Mr Kerr and Mr Stanley deserved our thanks for the time and effort they put in to make the trip a glowing success.

A special thanks also to Mrs Scott for arranging accommodation, Mrs Hopwood and Mrs Smyth for their considerable help and all other parents that were involved.

F. Wilson
Team Captain

Fencing

A PROMISING FUTURE

Fencing at Westlake has been much more lively this year than in recent years, with two fencers Peter Llewellyn (6 Noble) and David Winchester (6 Tait) travelling to Wellington during the August school holidays to attend a training camp run by top New Zealand fencer Martin Brill, and to compete in the New Zealand Secondary School Championships. Both fencers felt they gained a great deal from the course, which was held the week prior to the Championships.

The Championships, which were held on the weekend of the 1st and 2nd September, comprised of the Foil events (men's and women's) on the Saturday, and the Sabre, Epee and teams Foil on the Sunday. On the Saturday, the foil field was made up of 34 of the best Secondary School Provincial fencers and both Westlake fencers finished well up in the field, with Peter placed 9th and David 17th after an unfortunate seeding round matching in which both Westlake fencers had to square off in a Direct Elimination fight.

On the Sunday, both Peter and David were knocked out early in the Sabre event, and teamed up with two Auckland Grammar fencers to make up the Auckland B Provincial team, in foil.

The Auckland B versus Wellington A match was memorable for the fact that David convincingly beat the New Zealand Champ, 5 points to 3, in the biggest upset win of the tournament. The Auckland B team was eventually beaten 5 fights to 3.

Back in Auckland, the coming season looks promising, with both fencers able to compete in the Secondary Schools Championships next year, as well in the local tournaments.

With one or two new fencers coming up to competition standard next year, Westlake should have a good showing in years to come.

NB: P. Llewellyn is the 1st emergency for the New Zealand Under 20 Squad to go to Australia in 1991.

Archery

Archery continues in this school as an option during Wednesday recreation period.

A small band of enthusiastic pupils have enjoyed this option as either a summer or winter activity.

This winter has not been as pleasant as others because the prolonged wet weather caused the grounds to become very sloppy.

It is not necessary to have your own equipment for this activity as the school does have a few bows.

Archery is one of the few sports where one can genuinely "go for the gold".

Swimming

3rd Row: S. Currie, T. Weir.

Absent: J. Steel, D. Dalton, D. Lee, W. Brown.

Westlake Boys High School had a very successful year in 1990. As a team Westlake retained the trophy for the Northern Zone Area, beating off closest rivals, Takapuna Grammar. This swimming trophy is becoming a permanent fixture in the trophy cabinets as it is eight years since any other school has taken it off Westlake Boys High School.

Contrary to rumours it is not bolted down - "a la old mug" but with the strength of the Junior and Intermediate team, Westlake's reign is sure to continue well into the 1990's.

The school was also very proud of many individuals. The most notable being a current student, John Steel who swam for New Zealand at the Commonwealth Games - receiving a Bronze in the New Zealand Relay team. Nicholas Sanders an ex pupil was also a member of the Games team. Congratulations to both of them.

Others who swam well at Regional and National meetings were David Lee and Richard Cutting.

Overall a very successful swim season for Westlake Boys High School and we look forward to similar results next year.

TRAMPING

While some Westlake students were having a relaxing weekend, Westlake's Tramping Club were most probably up to their knees (or higher) in mud, water or bush.

The club have had an eventful but successful two seasons this year with about ten tramps being done as well as a canoeing trip in Riverhead and an overnight stay up at the Kai Iwi Lakes - tramping both days.

Mr Tisdall did a great job of organising and overseeing the tramps and was in no doubt the back-bone of the group.

Ranging from third to sixth formers, the group had no trouble completing each tramp even though getting lost on occasions.

Mrs Rolls, an experienced trumper herself, joined the group for the occasional trip and proved fitter than some of the others in the group.

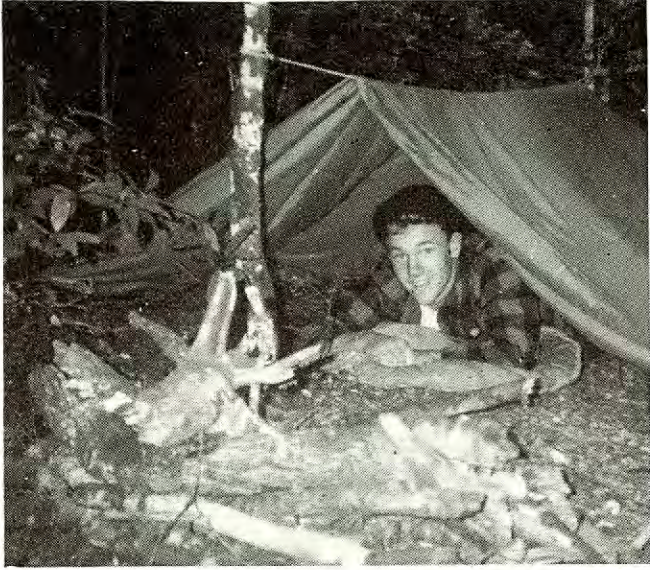

Meeting during Wednesday sports period, the club decided where to tramp that weekend and organize it during that time. Sometimes deciding where to tramp is a task in itself.

Unfortunately there was no tramping during the winter because Mr Tisdall was involved in hockey, but even though, the club covered a lot of ground during the summer.

The Tramping Club started in 1988 and could quite easily be one of the most gruelling sports at Westlake.

NORTH ISLAND OPEN 6th

NORTH ISLAND JUNIOR 7th

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR 1st

Waterpolo continues to grow in strength at Westlake. Both senior and junior teams played well in their grades, the juniors showing considerable promise in taking 1st equal with Auckland Grammar in the A grade.

A highlight of the year was the North Island Open Tournament held in April at the Henderson pool. This provided valuable experience, especially for the junior members playing against much older players. The team finished in a creditable 6th place.

Thanks to tournament coaches Ian Gunthorp and Mike Ramsay whose expertise was greatly appreciated.

In November, four players - Glenn Davis, Matthew Crawford, Torrin Crowther and Mark Frazerhurst, were selected to attend a coaching clinic given by former Australian Junior National coach Mr Les Kay. The five day clinic proved invaluable to the boys in refining techniques and skills.

1990 has been a successful year. We have shown we have both the talent and the enthusiasm to take on the best. Prospects for 1991 are looking great!

UNDERWATER HOCKEY

A new sport pushed its snorkel to the surface at Westlake this year. For the first time, Underwater Hockey has been introduced to schools on the North Shore, starting with Westlake Boys High School.

The sport demands bursts of energy from its players, who need to be skilled at diving and moving quickly underwater, supporting other team members and keeping an eye on the puck.

Matthew Crawford, Torrin Crowther and John Stephenson practise their skills at Glenfield Pool during Wednesday Sport.

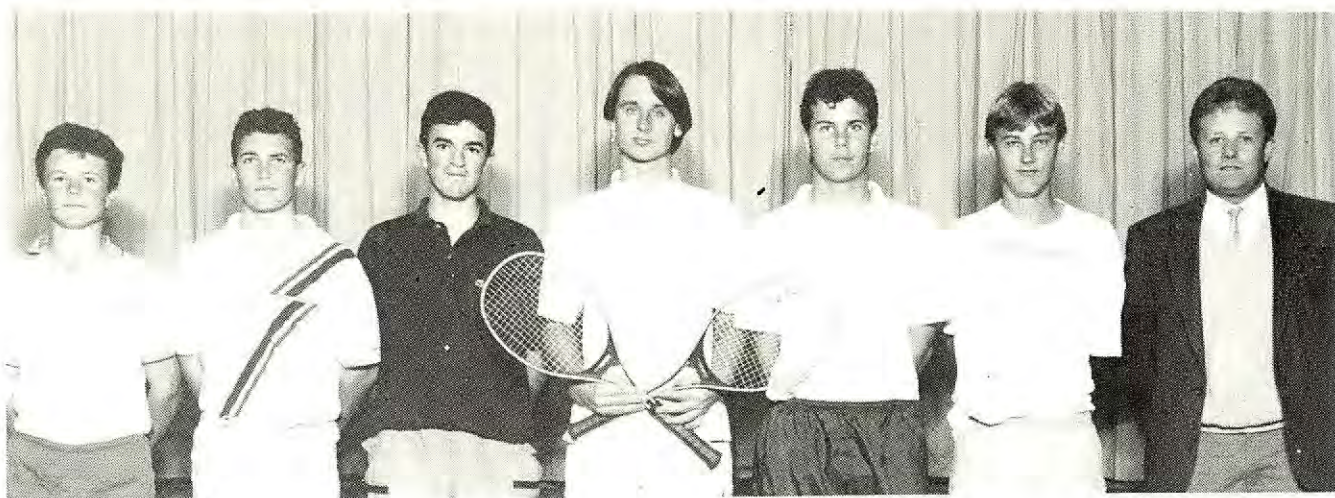

Played at the Glenfield Pools, the sport has grown quickly and attracted boys who are keen to practise their swimming skills all year round. The two coaches, Murray Brooks and Lex Kennedy, have worked hard with the three teams, who have a tournament with Birkdale College late in Term III. Teacher in charge of Underwater Hockey, Mrs Val. Cuthbert, has been a strong supporter of the new sport.

SENIOR A1

Coach: Mr Perkinson

Team Members: Gavin CHESTER, Jason Cassidy, Mark WILSON, Danny WILLMAN, Nigel JOYCE, Andrew CLAYTON, with guest appearances by Ben ASHLEY and Yu SAKAKIBARA.

Yet another successful season for the Westlake 1st Tennis Team. The School is justifiably proud of the performances of the team over the last seven years since we re-entered the secondary schools competition after an absence of some years. Over the last seven years the Senior A1 team has come second in the championship no less than six times, this year being no exception.

The standard of competition this year has been the highest since Westlake re-entered the championships, and second placing represents an excellent effort. We say goodbye to at least four of the team members this year, who are all in the seventh form, many of whom have been in the team since the fourth form.

Thank you for your years of service, Gavin CHESTER, Jason CASSIDY, Nigel JOYCE, and Andrew CLAYTON.

JUNIOR A

Coach: Mr Weal

Team Members: T CHURCH, M STROM, N BAREHAM, P SOUTHARD, J IRELAND, J FISK, S O'CONNOR, and D PERKINS. (C ROGERS and B BOTHWELL helped overcome Kings.)

The middle-of-the-road end to a very enjoyable years tennis. Wins against Avondale, Kelston and Kings and losses to Auckland Grammar and St Kents, and a draw against Mt Albert.

The team wishes to thank Mr Weal for his organisation and we are the coming stars of the future.

SURF-SURVIVAL

COACHES: Mr McLaren, Mr Mundy

Our squad spent the summer partly at Milford Beach and at school. Plenty of effort went into swimming, tube rescues and surf-ski drills. At school, we learnt how to recognise rip currents and practice mouth-to-mouth resuscitation on manikins.

The highlight of the season was a visit out to the North Piha Surf Club where we were able to practice boogie boarding, body-surfing and board riding in the huge surf. As well, we had a conducted tour of the club tower and IRB rescue boat. Thanks to Mr McLaren and Mr Mundy for organising equipment and venues.

Last year's magazine recorded how busy and successful 1989 proved to be in cross country and road race - "without a doubt the most successful in Westlake's history". Well, 1990 has been even more successful - it is hard to imagine we will ever compile a set of results to equal this year's!

First, though, mention must be made of the New Zealand Secondary Schools Road Race Championships (Auckland, December, 1989). Led by M. Woodward (4th), the Senior Team was 2nd in the 3-man and also in the 6-man competitions - in both cases, behind Palmerston North Boys High School. The Juniors, with G. Davis coming home 3rd, finished 2nd in the 3-man and 3rd in the 6-man races. Palmerston North again won the 3-man, but St. Bede's and Wellington College beat us in the 6-man.

ASB BANK SCHOOLS TEAMS CHAMPIONS

(6Km) 1 April. We had to field virtually a 'second-string' team since this race clashed with the North Island Athletics Championships in Hastings. However, the boys who ran for us did really well, finishing 2nd behind Pakuranga College.

NEW ZEALAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS CROSS COUNTRY

Blenheim, 17 June. After a sleepless overnight train journey from Auckland and a smooth ferry crossing over Cook Strait, our team enjoyed the still sunny days in Blenheim. With help from Mr McFarquhar and parents Gordon Lane and Tony Ferguson making the long trip south, we were ready for the race of our lives. Really, the only disappointing aspect - if indeed there was one - was to be beaten on the countback in the Junior 6-man. These results make clear our success:

AUCKLAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS ROAD RELAY

29 July. This event replaced the North Shore Road Race, and was held over the 'Gutbuster' course - each of the five boys running 5Km. Although the team was weakened by the absence of Amey through illness, matters were made much worse when Sloan, with a 3-minute lead, thanks to a fine first leg by Woodward, took a wrong turn! It was only very gutsy running by Davis, Newman and Robertson which allowed us to make up the six minute handicap to win by 6 seconds from Pakuranga College.

ROUND THE LAKE RELAY

(2Km) Wanganui, 23 July. Twelve boys travelled with Mrs Powles and Mr Wilson to Wanganui this year for the road relay around Lake Virginia. The third form team (Bothwell, Powles, McGregor, Barnett) just lost to Wanganui Collegiate after Bothwell and Powles had given us a substantial lead, but an excellent performance in a field of 42. The Senior A team (Newman, Amey, Taylor, Sloan) was also narrowly defeated, this time by traditional rivals Wellington College who exacted revenge on their defeats in Blenheim. The Senior B (Woodward, Davis, Skinner, Robertson) finished 7th - 51 teams competed from all round the North Island and from The King's School (Sydney).

WESTLAKE CROSS COUNTRY

St.Kentigern College, 29 September. Our best performance ever in this event - two wins (Junior, Senior) and a narrow second (to Rosmini) in the Intermediates. ### AUCKLAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS ROAD RACE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Macleans College, 13 October. "Westlake top in road running" said the headline in the Herald on the Monday after we became the first school to win all three grades of the Road Race Championships. It was particularly pleasing for the Intermediates who had suffered narrow losses in their two previous outings, and a particularly rewarding day for Shane Newman in his last appearance for Westlake in Auckland - five years of loyal service to the Westlake colours crowned with a magnificent win over the 7Km course at Bucklands Beach.

At the time of writing, boys are about to begin preparation for the New Zealand Road Race Championships to be held in Wellington on the first Sunday of December, grateful for what has already been accomplished but mindful that only hard work will keep us near the top of our sport. New Zealand Cross Country Champions, North Shore and Auckland Cross Country and Road Race Champions - it has been a really splendid year, but the highlight was undoubtedly the visit to Sydney in the first week of the August school holidays at the invitation of the Athletic Association of the Great Public Schools of New South Wales.

So many matters impressed the team - the excellent organisation of the races, the very generous hospitality of the hosts - St. Ignatius College, Normanhurst Boys High School, The King's School - the very good spirit of competition. Sydney itself, with its brilliant commuter train and ferry system, the Rocks, Manly, Circular Quay, downtown shopping, rugby league, the vastness of the city and its bustle. The Riverview Road Relay (18 August) was great for team spirit - a win in all three grades over a very hilly 3.2Km course, the Seniors (Newman, Knight, Amey, Sloan) recording 41m11s to beat 29 teams, the Intermediates (Davis, Robertson, Skinner, Sorby) 44m16s to beat 44 teams and the Juniors (Bothwell, Powles, McGregor, Hansen) 47m2s to beat 47 teams. The Cross Country at King's a week later was almost as successful - wins to the Seniors and Intermediates and a narrow second to the Juniors.

1st XV

It would be very easy to be disappointed in this years results, coming as they do after a couple of championship winning years, and a very successful tour to Canada and the USA in December, but really that would not do justice to this years team.

Our first game, and loss, was a pre-season fixture, curtain raiser to the North Harbour v Western Samoa game, and gave a rather accurate forecast of how the season was to progress. Westlake started strongly and dominated throughout the game. At half time we lead by 10-0 after a fine try and a couple of well kicked penalties. In the second half, in spite of continuing to dominate, we failed to capitalise on our many opportunities, missing several kicks at goal, and eventually lost 10-12.

This then really was the story of our season - a series of games in which we dominated, but failed to score.

The big game for the season came very early - the day after Easter in fact, when we defended the Moascar Cup against Kelston Boys High School. Played in rain on a wettish field, we looked good in the first half, taking the lead with an early penalty, then missed a couple of kicks, before giving away a penalty, and going to half time equal at 3-3. The second half started disastrously when we let Kelston in for a soft try, but we recovered well, spending the rest of the game in the Kelston half, and much of it on their try line. We played this half very much in the forwards, but in spite of crossing their line several times we never managed to force down for try. Right on full time, Kelston managed to break out, and raced the length of the field, to seal the game for them at 15-3. We were left to reflect on what might have been, but full credit must go to the Kelston defence for repeatedly keeping out attacks by Aaron Brewis, Travis Vincent, Simon Farland, and Blair Johnson.

The first round of the North Harbour Secondary Schools competition saw us winning our games comfortably, although the score did not always indicate this, and we did not always play particularly well, but the second round was a different story. After a 3 week break from games, the result of a default by Takapuna Grammar, and the sevens championship, we met Takapuna Grammar in the first of games of this round. Again we started strongly, but after missing two successive penalties from close to the posts, our game went to pieces. Takapuna Grammar kicked most of their possession away to us, but we did little with it, and then made mistakes at vital times, which Takapuna converted into points. We eventually lost 9-3, the first time for many years that we had lost to this school.

After a couple of well deserved but unspectacular victories over traditional rivals Rosmini and Hato Petera, we were beaten narrowly by Kaipara College (again) after the referee claimed he was unsighted twice when we scored, soundly beaten by Rangitoto College, a lethargic display - the after effect of the school ball, and then went down 4-6 to Northcote College after a poor performance by us.

We fared little better in our inter school fixtures, losing to Kelston Boys, Kings College, and Tauranga Boys College, beating Whangarei Boys, and drawing against Matamata College. We did however beat St Kentigerns College, and draw with Manurewa High School in the Rainbows End tournament to retain the trophy which we have held since the inception of this tournament.

Our biennial trip to the South Island this year by-passed Christchurch, as Shirley Boys were unavailable to play us, and instead we visited the deep south, playing Southland Boys and Verdon College in Invercargill, and Kings High in Dunedin. We lost narrowly to both Southland Boys and Kings High and beat Verdon. Southland Boys and Kings High were the two South Island schools to play in the national "Top Four" tournament, so we were rather pleased with our performances against these two teams - with a little luck we could have beaten each of these teams.

The 1st XV hosted two overseas teams during the season, and in many respects these were our best performances. At mid term break we were visited by Brisbane Boys College. As is usual for this time of the year the weather was poor, and the game was played in what could rather accurately be described as a sea of mud. In spite of this we passed the ball with confidence, ran strongly, and shut out the much bigger Australians who never really came to terms with the conditions. Towards the end of July we hosted the champion Japanese school team from Fushimi Industrial High School. Again the field was muddy, but again our ball handling and running was superb, and for a change our goal kicking was accurate, and we won 29-3.

In the past the Old Boys game has tended to be a 'graveyard' with our players struggling to come to terms with the older and more experienced opponents. This topsy turvy year however, we were in danger of winning for most of the game, showing a real commitment to team effort, but were pipped at the end to lose 38-32. Again this game was played in mud - ironically the only games we played on a hard ground were when we were in the South Island!

One further highlight of the season was the return visit to Westlake by the Nantymoel Youth Team from Wales. This was a club that we visited on our overseas tour in 1987-88, and we were pleased to be able to repay some of the hospitality they accorded us. It was an opportunity for many of the players who went on that tour to once again play together again, and against many of the boys we played against in Wales.

Congratulations go to our players who were selected for representative teams:-
Northern Region A:- Aaron Brewis
North Harbour Secondary Schools:- Aaron Brewis, Travis Vincent, Simon Farland, Paul Mahan, Mark Roberts
North Harbour Under 18:- Mark Roberts.

The Team:-

Simon Farland (flanker) Very skilled and fit. Excellent tackler and strong runner with the ball. A fine captain who led by example.

Aaron Brewis (prop)- Very strong and experienced player who always gave of his best. Must have come close to NZ team selection.

Paul Mahan (hooker)- Quick striker for the ball, and good lineup jumper. His play around the field improved as the season progressed.

Blair Johnson (prop)- A strong scrummager with very good general skills. Blair has developed into a top rugby player!

Travis Vincent (lock)- Tall, with very good lineup skills. Niggling injuries meant we never saw the best of Travis except in the earlier games of the season.

Jim Iverson (lock)- Very experienced and excellent in the tight and on the burst.

Mark Roberts (flanker)- Had a useful season which earned him selection for both the schools and under 18 rep. teams.

Bruce McConnachie (No 8)- Strong and aggressive runner, and handy ball winner at the end of the lineup.

Glen Dobson (No 8)- Excellent all round skills. Played several games at fullback and centre.

Mathew Slater (flanker)- Developed his skills considerably throughout the season and has the potential to be one of the stars for next year.

Shane Harvey (Prop/lock)- Big and strong - played his way into the team with impressive performances for the 2nd XV. Has considerable potential as a goal kicker.

Dana Chesney (halfback)- Has a strong pass and is an elusive runner. A demon tackler. He developed considerably throughout the season.

Duncan Garner (halfback)- Very strong around rucks, mauls, and scrums. His all round play improved as he gained in confidence.

Adam Larkin (1st 5/8)- Full of promise, but often lacking in confidence. Will be more dominant next season after a year's experience.

Kayne Clifton (2nd 5/8)- Equally at home at 1st 5/8 or fullback. Has the potential to go to the top. Quick and elusive runner with an excellent kick.

Mark Sandford (2nd 5/8)- Missed much of the season after an operation on his shoulder, but continued to contribute significantly to the team. An aggressive ball winner in the loose, and a very strong tackler.

Mathew Ellwood (centre)- Missed a vital part of the season after breaking a bone in his hand. Speedy, and a good distributor of the ball.

Gavin Chester (wing)- aggressive runner and tackler, we never really saw him at his best, as play always seemed to go out to the other wing.

Shaun Lincoln (wing)- had an excellent season. Speedy and committed and very enthusiastic.

Richard Ruegg (fullback)- Promoted after excellent performances in 2nd XV early in the season. A steady and committed defensive player with flair on attack.

Simon Marcroft (utility)- filled in admirably when needed and scored two match-winning intercept tries. Simon has a great future in rugby.

Martin Littlejohn (1st 5/8)- matured considerably in his play as the season progressed. Martin has considerable ability and a good rugby instinct.

The season started very well with a 4-0 win over a very big Kelston 2nd XV and wins against Kristin 1st XV, Long Bay 1st XV and Hato Petera 2nd XV. The team then lost three games before it played its best game of the season against our main championship threat. This was against a very good Rangitoto 2nd XV who was beating our other competition opponents by larger scores than we were. The middle part of this game was almost perfect rugby by Westlake and they led by 19-3, Rangitoto came back and in the last four minutes of the game scored two tries to make the final score 19-11.

After that game Richard Ruegg won his way into the 1st XV and Shane Harvey also played some 1st XV matches.

Several players stood out during the year - Captain Haydan Mander, who was the only player to play in all 16 matches, excelled in the tight play. Shane Harvey was very hard to stop in broken play and kicked very well, Mark Henson - loose forward who was the most consistent performer and Matthew Slater who never missed a tackle or chance to score a try.

The teams strength was their scrummaging and driving play, plus the ability to score points from tap penalty moves. The team did exceptionally well to win the Championship considering it was quite often difficult to find 15 fit players.

Championship Position: Winner of North Harbour 3A Championship

Under Mr Johnson's expert guidance and coaching 3A once again had a superlative year of rugby. The side suffered only one loss, won all its competition games and was a well-balanced group of players who practised with purpose and combined well as a team.

The highlight of the season for most was not only the winning of the North Harbour Championship, but the international match against Fushimi Technical High School from Japan. Our opposition were fleet-footed and showed considerable skill. Although we won 26-6 our Japanese visitors exhibited great determination and sportsmanship.

Other notable achievements during the year were the notching up of 108 points by Michael Monga and the top try tall of 11 by Gavin Purdy.

Coach's Comment: This was a fine all-round team with some outstanding players. Sadly the weather in the latter half of the winter did little to help teams play running rugby - but in spite of this we still managed to score some great tries. Unfortunately, Reuben Cutts (broken leg) and Jimmy Bettridge (knew injury) lost most (Reuben) and the latter half (Jimmy) of the season. Brad Palmer and Robert Jones led by example in captaining the team early in the season. Andrew Kennedy, a most promising forward, took over as captain for the latter half of the season and did a grand job. Several of the team have the potential to progress a lot further in the game.

3 draws, and 3 games lost by less than 4 points sums up 3B commitment this season.

3B began as a team with much individual and team promise and lived up well to these expectations. After round one, 3B moved into the "A" grade for the championship round where the team played their best rugby. They were a tremendous tackling team, superb on defense and when in trim (as against Birkenhead) were unbeatable. There was a great spirit and camaraderie between players evidenced by both Andrew Both and Chris Elsmore seriously injured in earlier games, supporting the team loyally on Saturdays.

During the season various players, were awarded "Player of the Day", although Andrew Pardington, exemplified a great attitude, tremendous effort backed up by considerable skill (plus some height). He was awarded "Player of the Season" and justifiably so.

All team members improved during the season and some like Chris Elsmore who moved from flanker to fullback performed admirably in their new positions. Simon Hadlee as hooker played 3/4 of the season to be called away to the mountains. Craig Harper (Form 3) took his place - a player of much promise. We lost Aaron Hogg, half way through the season while A Booth, C Elsmore and D Crawford suffered prolonged injuries for the cause.

Parental support was tremendous throughout the season and for that the team and I were most grateful. To all players, thanks for a most rewarding and enjoyable season.

3C

3C was a team made up of those who weren't good enough, those who weren't prepared to make the effort. But with a successful first game things didn't look so bad. The team was then divided into those who were committed and put on the outstanding performances like Sandford, Hammond, Haves, Cranston, Piggin, Smith Wilson and Harper - and those who weren't committed. These performances soon became known and first and second fifteen players were begging to play for 3C. Players the likes of Lincoln, Horse and other big timers.

The team had an enjoyable season and played well, except for the +0@%*+ that didn't turn up to practices.

A special thanks must be made to Mr Harper who turned up to coach the eight or so on many occasions. The final game saw a first and second fifteen studded team go down to a Glenfield 3rd grade team, which was a disappointment. Thanks also to those that helped out on the odd game, to our Captain Piggin and Mr Masterton the Coach.

4A convincingly won the North Harbour fourth grade championship. The team improved greatly throughout the season only losing one game in the first round by 14-4 in a tight and desperately unlucky match against Rosmini. However in the championship round Rosmini were beaten 8-0. The best game of the season was undoubtedly against Takapuna Grammar in which four tries were scored in the first half.

4A consisted of three sets of brothers, the Wilsons', Henrys' and Haycocks. The teams' tight five comprised of two excellent young props, Phillip George and Chris Henry who were well supported by the older more experienced locks of Geoff Henry, Nigel Hunter, prop Chris Pownell and hooker Henry Withers. All played strongly throughout the whole season.

The side was backed by four fast loose forwards, Martin Henderson, Fraser Wilson, Russell Haycock and Nat Dowsett. The back-line played consistently during the season scoring many tries out wide. Duncan Wilson played well all season clearing the ball quickly to Andrew Clayton at first-five, who was a steady influence in the team, finding touch well. The midfield backs of Glenn Davis and Shane Wheeler were working brilliantly together by the end of the season. Tony Whitehead, Shane Newman, Steven James and Phillip Restall scored their fair share of tries as wingers. Fullback Daniel Gosling played both a good defensive and attack game.

A special mention must go to all the reserves who were forced to sit out championship games because of team selection policy but were always there when needed. Especially Jody Davis and Andrew Rhodes who turned up to every practice, and often only played half games.

Training turn-outs were excellent and the team worked enthusiastically at practices. As the season passed by the team had many changes with team members leaving and two players sustaining broken arms.

Overall the team played some brilliant rugby as the season progressed, after an indifferent start to the season. The team would like to thank Mr Rivers for his dedication to the team. His guidance was invaluable. A special thank you must also go to Mr Davis for giving so unselfishly of his time to coach the backs.

With some intensive coaching early on in the season the team began putting together a string of successes in the grading round. There were a couple of losses but when the grading round ended we had done enough to gain entry, together with the more illustrious 4'A's, into the A grade. So Westlake had two teams in that division.

As the season wore on we had some reason to regret our early success. The competition round was hard-going, and although we came close to winning several of our games, notably against Massey and Hato Petera, we found it impossible to gain the win we wanted.

So we finished up near the bottom of the table but we learned things. Many of the team were innocent of rugby when they started. When they finished they knew a lot more. Of the forwards Dean Barker was always outstanding while Paul Hitchcock proved himself a brave and talented fullback. Winger Andrew Cook scored the most tries.

It is impossible to finish without emphasising the seasons highlights: gaining A grade status and best of all, sending the Westlake A's off the field with a huge measure of respect for our ability and our determination.

Coaches:

Mr Ready
 Mr Rea

The 4C Rugby team had a difficult season in a strong competition which was won by the Westlake 4A side. As a team we were not really competitive against the A teams but were able to achieve some close results and a fine win against Kristin after the competition was divided into two divisions. The team had a number of talented young players including Emerson McLeod, Chris Rogers and Stuart Mellor. Andrew Sinclair as Captain, and Bryan Jones who played equally well as a forward or back were the 'iron men' in the team.

wouldn't even catch the ball for fear of getting dirty, ex-League players who seemed to enjoy running through, instead of around, well-meaning people attempting to tackle them and high fliers who delighted in jumping into the tackle and causing their would-be tackler to end up with stitches in his head. I'm sure Mr Hart would have slit his wrists if he had been given the chance.

We then headed off to the practise game against Kelston Boys High that would decide the final selection for the team that represented the apex of Westlake sports. A pity we lost, but that is only a minor detail; that game decided the final squad for the most famous and feared Rugby Union team ever to don the green, red and white ..... "Hercules Harts' 1990 Invincibles!" (well, almost invincible). After that somewhat shaky start we got down to the nitty gritty and started to not attend practises, which understandably got Mr Hart a bit hot under the collar (of his bright orange raincoat). We now have no doubt whatsoever in our minds that it is possible for a 5 foot 2 inch P.E. Instructor to outcream AC/DC. He started in on those much looked forward to training sessions of his and pretty soon we were all walking around with 24 inch biceps and double hernias.

Finally with weeks of intensive training under our belts, we were ready for our first game. It was against the boys from the country, Kaipara. Needless to say, after a hyping up from old Here' we did them 60 incredible points to a measly nil. We then travelled up North to met the next challengers who turned out to be Mahurangi. Their Hooker had a big, scabby patch of eczema on his head and we had to drag Robert Cooke, our Hooker, on to the field. It turned out to be a rather interesting brawl that ended up with Todd Anscombe (a very loose forward) conceding about 76 penalties and a 30 to 6 win for us.

Upon hearing of the Kings College field day, our learned coach thought we would share the spoils and take part. After a brief but exciting game we turned the tables on them, continuing our unbeaten streak.

As the season progressed our fame grew and (Grant Wilson's head swelled) our rugby prowess increased to absurd proportions. Both Grant and the rest of the team thought that we were invincible. We a mistake to make! We went to the next game with victory on our lips and came away with our foot in our mouth. It was a crowd-pulling, blood-pulsing, bone-shattering game that climaxed in a brilliant loss for us.

With that sobering clash in mind we took more care with our game and the rest of the preliminary round is history.

Glenfield went down 23-0 and our neighbours Rosmini lost 10-0. We then had a laugh at the Rangitoto B team (although they tried hard), notching up 80 points to their nil. Our scrums were as steady as a rock and there was some hard running from all the forwards, in particular Carl Fordham, Logan Russell and Eli Weir. Everyone had a go at converting but only a few were successful. Blair Tipler was hero of the day with his high jumping evasive tactics when confronted by anyone trying to tackle him. The last game in the preliminary round was against a determined Takapuna Grammar side. There was a lot of friendly rivalry as a lot of the team had friends attending Taka. We were ultimately the better team and won 16-4.

The competition round was a lot harder, as we had envisaged, but we compensated by putting in added weight. We managed to come out on top in our next encounter with Northcote, the score being 22-4. We were helped along by the fact that their overweight players had been dropped. I have to mention at this stage that one of the players critical to our teams success was our half-back, Billy. He played extremely well under pressure and was an asset to the team.

The rest of the games were much closer as we lost a few players, through sickness and lack of commitment. Mark Bell joined the team, and so did one of the 5B players. We played Rosmini with only 13 players in very muddy conditions, and James Beckett showed us that size doesn't count. They came close but we held out to a 1 point lead on full-time, 4-3. Paul Tangaroa, one of our Props, started losing interest and played like a soccer player, but was soon back on track in the next game which was against Orewa. They didn't put up much show, and lost 10-4, helped along the way by our flaming ninja of a winger Brett Hopwood.

Our next game against Rangitoto A was cancelled and that left only 2. The first was against Glenfield and we won 18-6. This was made possible because of some stimulating play from our backs, namely Tony Hewitson who had been scoring down the line all season, leaving the opposition and his pants behind. The Grand Finale was now upon us. There was nowhere left to hide. We turned up early and hyped up, determined to have a good game. They scored first with a penalty, but our intrepid kicker and fullback Campbell soon equalised, something he had done all season. We then set our teeth and played on, not giving any ground. The scrummaging was unbelievable; one time they screwed the scrum on their put-in, and we were so affronted by it we pushed them right off the ball and nearly scored.

The struggle was over and the final score set when, out of a maul, Eli ran way up field, fending off tackles and set it up for some brilliant running from Ben Ashley.

On behalf of the team, I would like to thank our exceptional coach, "Hercules Hart" for all his time, effort and patience in moulding us into a championship winning team, and all our parents, who gave us support throughout the season.

Eli Weir

3RD FORM REP. TEAM

The Third Form Representative side played some attractive rugby, especially in their two earlier games. Although it did not win one of its four matches, it narrowly lost its first to St. Kentigern College 10-4 and in a home game to St. Stephens 14-0. This game was undoubtedly our best performance with some excellent forward play being complemented by hard running in the backs. McBride in the backs would have to have been the player of the day. Other good efforts were put in by Captain Billy Fulton, and forwards B. Powles and C.Harper.

Our last two games against Auckland Boys Grammar and Kelston (who eventually won the tournament) were quite decisive victories on their behalf. These wins reflected, to a large extent, the gap that exists at this age, between North Harbour and Auckland rugby. Not just in size but also in mental attitude as well.

Whatever else, this tournament gives the most skilled young players an early chance to play against players of a higher calibre than normal school rugby matches often allow.

This year's Westlake Under 15 team was not as big as previous teams but they were definitely big on spirit and performance.

The team comprised of 8 fifth formers, 12 fourth formers and 2 thirds.

Westlake left for Dannevirke on Tuesday 14 August for a seven and a half hour trip. The team was met with a traditional Maori welcome on our Marae accommodation.

Kaitia College was our first game and after good pressure and a hearty effort the team came out valid victors after a try by Paul Hitchcock and conversion and penalty by Bryce Chesney the score was 9-0. Excellent driving and running by forwards along with superb ball handling by backs won this game.

Game two was against our other team staying on the Marae - Whakatane High School. A haka was performed by this team but this did not seem to deter Westlake at all. Steven James scored a magnificent wingers try to put the score at 4-0. After continuous pressure by Westlake, Whakatane soon became discouraged and our team took advantage of this with hard and skilful play by Russell Haycock and Grant Morris, and excellent line-out jumping by Reg Maata. This along with Adam Bogue's gallant play as team captain lifted the forwards play to defeat Whakatane 7-0, after a penalty by Bryce Chesney.

The home team was our next game and this time Westlake put on a haka for Dannevirke.

In this game the backs running, and skills by Chris Rodgers opened up an overlap for Phillip Restall to sail in for a good winger's try. Dannevirke came back scoring two tries and a penalty to make the score 6-11. In the dying minutes a beautiful kick and chase, put Paul Hitchcock in for a try to make the score 10-11. The try was unconverted to make that the final score. Two players that stood out were Phillip Knight who showed his speed and ball handling along with dynamic hooking by Chris Henry. Having won our pool we were to play Wesley College in the semi-final.

With huge players such as a 100kg, 6 foot, No.8, it was obvious that Westlake couldn't compete. There was occasional outstanding play by the forwards with a speedy side-line run by Grant Morris to score us a try. This was converted to make the end score 6-26 to Wesley - the eventual tournament winners. The last game for third and fourth placings was against Kings College - another haka was performed by Westlake. Westlake scored first to make the score 3-0 but then the team just seemed to die letting Kings win 3-13. Although we lost, some players displayed their skills throughout the whole tournament, players such as the Wheeler twins making good play with their unique combinations. Halfback Duncan Wilson was superior to other halfbacks. All loose forwards played well, with Phillip Knight and Reg Maata outstanding in the tight.

Overall the team finished fourth out of sixteen teams which was a great effort.

The team would like to thank the parents who assisted and Mr Rivers and Mr Haggitt for their coaching.

Record: Played: 12 Won: 5 Lost: 5

The 5B Rugby team was rather slow to mould into a team unit and as a result suffered several losses in the early part of the season. Once the grading round was behind them the team found its straps and turned in some very good wet-weather performances.

The forward pack was quite small, but nevertheless the scrum always held its own, even if lineout ball was mostly hard to come by. The backs who were well marshalled by S. Nicholson scored some good tries, mostly out wide.

Towards the end of the season D. Hitchcock and H. Foot were promoted to the 5A team and assisted them in winning the championship.

6A enjoyed the 1990 season and played some very attractive rugby, especially early in the season when the ground was hard. They were loyal in training and in attendance (most of the time) and have demonstrated great character in winning some hard fought games against strong sides. Games against Long Bay College, who were well overweight and Rosmini A later in the season showed a very determined and committed side. The fact that 306 points were scored for and only 8 against, sums up a great all round effort.

The team developed a lot during the year and went from having talented backs and reasonable forwards early on, to having two well balanced units complementing each other. This great improvement by the forwards enabled 6A to win the competition.

Although it is unfair to single out a few players from a team effort, lack of space makes this necessary. The most valuable player was Adrain Waters, supported by R. Norton, G. Rhodes (Captain), J. Roberts and R. Simpson. In the backs M. Frazerhurst (vice-captain), K. Schertenleib and J. Smith showed great hands and a skill that belies their years. They were ably supported by N. Wakefield, B. Sandford and T. Watson, a fullback who not only tackled brilliantly but who also attacked with flair and style.

These players and a number of others showed a lot of potential and if they continue to play the game will benefit and get enjoyment from it.

The season started with a tight game against Massey at Westlake (8-4 to Westlake). This close game was repeated later in the season with a 10-10 draw at Massey. Poor tackling let us down in the first half but we struggled back to lead 10-6 only to give the win away late in the game. Several of the games followed this pattern. Against Rosmini (2) - a rugged encounter on the No.1 at Westlake with a first half loss being changed to a second half win. This was heavy going for coach and spectators as well as the players. Good support on the sideline made such a difference here. Our only non-competition game against Kings was similar - 6-4 down at half-time, ending up winning 14-6.

However, back to the early part of the season: After a close game against Rangitoto, Rosmini (1)

Takapuna was a crunch game at this stage and unfortunately two runaway tries to Taka made all the difference. We played Mahurangi on a beautiful day making it a pleasant drive - their team was relatively small and we won quite easily. Long Bay was just too good as were Glenfield - both games were played in atrocious conditions and being two short against brought us up smartly beating us handsomely through mainly excellent back play. We gave the Westlake 6A team one of their toughest games of the season, only losing 10-0. Some good forward play kept us in contention throughout.

Glenfield did not help - what a good sport their coach was lending us two players!

Orewa was played on another bad day but good drainage at their school made up for this and we won another close game 18-14. Richard Penberthy, the Captain, broke his collarbone to our dismay. We were due to play Orewa again as the final game of the season on another dreadful day only to arrive at Westlake to hear they had defaulted. However a good season overall. We finished well up overall - 6th position in the championship.

Thanks for some tremendous support from parents and without wishing to single out anyone I must mention Richard Penberthy who displayed some fine leadership and example on the field and at practice.

Merely saying that our season was mediocre or meagre is really quite an understatement. It all swung into action one cold and seemingly bleak Saturday morning, late in April of this year. We were two players short and quite honestly very scared. About 40 minutes later (with a full team) we had beaten Rosmini 104-0 and were understandably pleased.

We finished second in the competition - only losing narrowly to Takapuna; but beaten or unbeaten, we still had a crazy year. Above all, we had everything we needed. There was a set of ardent supporters with gumboots, scarves and broken umbrellas. We had awful weather, we had character and we had an excellent coach you would always listen to - and why not! He is the Principal!

I think the only way to explain how we could score 575 points in 14 games and only concede 53 is to talk about who was involved. Everybody in the team was different and vital, because of it - Mitchell Owens always played better after being fouled or injured, for some strange reason and was always willing to have a run. The same could be said for Joshua Henderson who was always valuable when it came to lineouts. Our hooker was Michael Smythe who deserves some praise for always getting to the ball early and not giving away any ground.

The second row consisted of myself and Aaron McKeown, who would always run with the ball in both hands but consistently stood in a tackle. Daniel Pheeting scored several magnificent tries from the base of the scrum on the blind side - an effort worth mentioning. Every so often Shaun Greig would fire the ball over the oppositions heads which allowed for a great attacking situation. James Bartley was definitely not the biggest on the field - but one of the fastest and more daring. Ryan Wilson used to tackle everyone and was especially good on defence.

I have deliberately left two people till last - Nicholas Fergusson was perhaps our most valued player - he scored 292 out of our 575 points. He could run, pass, kick and tackle. He definitely deserves a special mention. Lastly, Mr Pascoe should receive thanks because he was always at our games and was one of the reasons for our success. It was a great season - with a good climax. Thanks to the supporters for coming and cheering as well. Here's to next season!!

Mr Hall enjoyed it too!

7C

Our 7C team consisted of Brad Buckle - Hooker and Captain, Michael Shirtcliff, Chris Jennings, Cameron Bradnock, Daniel Perkins and Derek Hooper, all played well in the forwards, and the backs of Matthew Austin, Scott Moore, Allan Butt, Sean Thornton and Greg Williams also pulling their weight in our back line.

We had a pretty rough start to the year, but soon came right having some good draws and finally a win on our last game.

Thanks to all the coaches, also I think we all enjoyed the 1990 rugby season.

The eleven required for 7A were soon selected, the second and third teams were formed by the completely unbiased method of choosing alternately from the remaining 22. 7C had the usual mix of one forward and ten backs, a situation quickly rectified at the first practice!

After an early loss to a very good Takapuna Grammar team, we had convincing wins against Rosmini 7A, Glenfield and 7B. This was enough to see us into the Championship round. At this stage Brett Barwick was attracted to the fine snow conditions at Ruapehu, and the inevitable flu took out one or two other key players. We struggled through the round, but were never completely outclassed (we did have trouble though, against 7A and Takapuna Grammar). The team always showed spirit, and attendances at practices were generally good.

As the season progressed, we were joined by John Stephenson and Scott Schrader, both of whom showed much promise.

Our special thanks to the parents and grandparents who cheered us on, and were always

CANADA/USA TOUR

After 14 months of fundraising including delivering 40 000 telephone books, selling raffle tickets, obtaining sponsorships, painting a factory and selling more raffle tickets, we had exceeded our target of $120 000, and our party of 41 players, 3 staff, and 3 parents were off to play rugby in Vancouver, and the unlikely places of Seattle, San Francisco, and San Diego.

We experienced extremes of weather conditions in our games - a downpour and bone-chilling cold on Vancouver Island, frost still on the ground for our late afternoon game in Vancouver itself, and hot temperatures with a hard field in San Diego, but we thoroughly enjoyed our games, and were well looked after by our hosts everywhere we went.

Our A team, who were almost all 1st XV players, played 8 games, and lost only the one game, their last against the Southern Californian Universities rep side, a side made up of players much older than our boys, and included, we understand, two who had played for their national team. In this game we actually led at half time, and only lost in the final seconds of the game after the scores had been locked up at 10 all for most of the 2nd half.

The B team was made up of players from a variety of teams, and took a game or two to settle in, but eventually came right and won 4 of their 7 games, an excellent effort considering they were playing mainly 1st XVs.

Players to excel on the tour were David Smithson, Paul Langley, and Guy Farland in the A team, while Andrew Goodin was the outstanding player for the B team. Shane Harvey was the player to improve most during the tour.

Some of the highlights were:- being hosted by a school where the fees are $22 000, visiting the King Dome and Boeing factory in Seattle, checking out the airport security (also in Seattle), riding the cable cars and visiting Alcatraz in San Francisco, shopping in Tijuana, and our visits to Knotts Berry Farm and Disneyland (although Disneyland wasn't everyone's "cup and saucer" of tea.

This season the team had its ups and downs, but we still managed to come out of our games on the winning side for most of the North Shore Competition. In many of our games we would start badly, but then the team would settle to play some great volleyball. The two games that we lost in the competition were to our toughest rivals - Glenfield College. Both games were long and hard encounters. In the first game we lost 3 sets to 1 but the second was a two hour battle and the game was lost narrowly. When we were finally beaten in the fifth set, 15-12.

After finishing second in the North Shore competition, we then had zone play offs against some of the best teams in Auckland. Unfortunately two off days for the team, combined with very tough competition, saw a disappointing finish to the season. We just missed out on going on to the Auckland Championship by one game.

Overall, our Senior B Volleyball team had an impressive season, gaining victories in all games minus two, one a loss and the other by default.

An outstanding team effort was shown by every player, especially Craig Foote, who gave up two nights a week, having been recruited for Senior A as well.

Team jokers Daniel Cowley and Stefan Howell tendered their own brand of sports comedy to our games ensuring a good time was had by all (including the opposition).

Aaron Hemingson kept the team together with his Hitler impersonations as Captain and the rest of us ignored him like the dedicated followers we were.

So despite the bruises on the body and to the ego we give special thanks to Mr Smith who without his sense of humour and lunchtime dedication would have seen us finish last in the competition. We hope to see everyone back next season for another dose of punishment and enjoyable monotony.

Winners of Auckland Secondary Schools Senior A.

At the beginning of the season the team set as their major goal the winning of the Senior A section and thus gain promotion to the Premier Division. The team felt that this was a realistic goal, given the experience and ability of the players.

By the penultimate game of the first round Westlake were five points clear of their nearest rivals Romsini college, whom they met in the last game. This was the first opportunity that the team had of securing the championship as an eight point lead could not have been pegged back. On the day however the team performed well below their true ability and lost 1-0, conceding an unnecessary penalty. During the second round the team had notable victories: against Orewa College 8-0 and Papatoetoe High School 10-1. These however were offset by disappointing draws against Avondale College and Mt Roskill Grammar. A loss to a much improved Mt Albert Grammar side meant that everything hinged on the last game against Rosmini. Played in atrocious conditions the team clung to a slender 2-1 lead playing into a gale during the second half. This game showed the teams fighting spirit and their resolve to achieve their set goal.

NATIONAL SECONDARY SCHOOLS TOURNAMENT

Tournament success depends to some extent on a little bit of luck. The teams chances of qualifying for the top eight were effectively ruined in the very first game when, despite dominating for 80% of the time, Christchurch Boys High School scored from one of their two raids in the second half. From that time on the team played with courage and skill and were within 10 minutes of securing a place in the top 8 only to have Christchurch Boys score the goal against De La Salle which saw them pip Westlake. Westlake did have the satisfaction however of being the only team to beat the eventual winners Shirley Boys High 2-0.

OVERVIEW

The team had an enjoyable season. Each individual at some time contributed to the winning of the championship.

Scott Francis in goal proved to be courageous, agile and keen to learn. Gareth McFarlane as leading goal scorer was kept up to his work by Ian Hamilton whose ability to read the game as well as score many goals were crucial to our success. Douglas Ironsides goals against Avondale and Rosmini in the final two games effectively sealed the championship. In the midfield the team was greatly strengthened by the arrival of Dylan Jones, the tireless running and goal scoring ability of Glen Taylor, the adventurous play of Simon Slawson and the ferocious determination of Brendon Hooker. Daniel Jones, Shaun Haward and Nick Larkin kept the best attacks under control while Mattson Arblaster showed what a willingness to learn and a determination to succeed can do.

A team however, needs strong reserves. David Saunders, Damesh Kumar, Chris Trew were all called upon to make their contribution and they never let the team down. David Glackin's inclusion into the tournament team showed what depth there is at Westlake for he quickly and easily slotted in.

On a personal note I would like to thank Frank for the time and effort he once again put into the team and Trevor Weal for so ably looking after the team for the first five matches while I was away.

Finally I would like to thank all those parents who supported the team this year. To Rob Arblaster for his tireless work patching the boys up, to Mrs Hamilton for organising the afternoon teas, to all the mums and dads for providing the food, the transport and the encouragement, without your support, the season would not have been as successful or nearly as enjoyable.

2nd XI

TEAM: S. Betts (Capt.), M. Schofield, M. Stevenson, B. Monteith, S. Rutherford, G. Bond, T. Jellie, J. Marshall, C. Greeves, J. Robertson, B. James.

COACH: Mr McLaren

Our players had an enjoyable season and showed a lot of improvement. One of the highlights was competing in the mid-term break tournament. We had a draw against Glenfield College, having been soundly beaten by them earlier in the season. Austin Simmonds in goal was overworked and made a lot of good saves. Jamie, Clint and Stuart covered a lot of ground up front and scored many good goals. Our halves showed real speed and determination with Trevor, Blair, Sam and Matthew linking well. The fullbacks Matthew, Greg and Bryan showed good skills in defence. Thanks to Mr McLaren for his support and efforts at all our training sessions and matches.

Coach: Mr P.Jaques

Record: Played 9, Won 2, Lost 6, Drew 1
This 3rd Eleven team was one with an indomitable spirit - no matter how many setbacks they suffered. They always had a positive approach to their game, and went out intent on enjoying a game of soccer. The start of the season saw 15 players register to play for the 3rd XI - this was soon reduced to 13 after one player withdrew and Chris Gray broke his ankle. The team soldiered on in the first round to record one draw and five losses. The second round of the games saw three cancelled --- of the two games played, the team won one (unfortunately by default) and lost the other.

Although this looks like a grim record, the team enjoyed every game, and became quite skilled at indoor soccer on wet Wednesdays. The team owes a debt of gratitude to Mr Irwin for his leadership on Saturdays, and to other members of the team who so willingly volunteered to play in goal each week.

Coach: No Coach - No Practices

Record: Senior C Premier Division Winners

This year's seventh form social soccer team played under the name 'Barclays Rovers' and broke with tradition by inflicting several crushing victories upon opponents going on to win the Senior C Premier League with a near perfect record.

In keeping with the social atmosphere a total of 24 players were used in the '1 matches, including 5 rugby players, 1 hockey player, 1 badminton rep, a player from Westlake Girls and four people who had never kicked a ball in their lives. With such representatives, the team was not a mountain of confidence and fears were realised with a big defeat first time out. But victories against Kristen and Rangitoto fired up the side and there was no stopping the Rover's Rampage from here on in. Huge wins followed in succession and Barclay's won the preliminary round with five victories from six outings.

In the championship round, Rovers stormed straight to the top of the Division and the season climaxed with a nail-biter against Mt. Roskill Grammar. Barclays needed a draw to win the league and it wasn't until the last minute that 'Player of the Year' Pierce, sealed a 2-0 victory after Slawson had earlier saved a penalty with the score at 0-0. The defence was the surprising success story. Biggie, Vautier and Masters performed well with Slawson or Ironside sweeping.

Because of the nature of the side there were many combinations but the midfield of skilful "Gazza" Christmas, dynamic Alex Harbour and violent Charles Laing was a consistent supplier and saver of goals. The regular strike-force of Pierce, Wade and Pollock was exceptional with the two latter acting as provider for the former. Pierce, voted Player of the Season - scored 18 goals in his 10 matches, finding the net in every game he played. This outstanding record included 4 goals against Kelston.

The goalkeeping hovered consistently just above the verge of mediocrity, due in part to inexperience and in main to sheer ineptness of Lev 'The Black Panther' Davies. Spirit throughout was high, typified by the appearance of Jesse Warn in basketball boots slipping all over a muddy field giving 110 percent effort of and 0 percent skill.

Thanks to all 24 players who turned out and special thanks to Gavin Chester and Simon Slawson for initiating and organising the side respectively.

qualifying comfortably and easily for the finals, but despite playing some very good football, ended third in Auckland.

The team revelled in the good conditions early in the season and ran up several big scores with some outstanding football, but then got bogged down in the rain and lost against Kelston Boys High School in atrocious conditions, after a most comfortable pre-season win against them. The match against Auckland Grammar was a tough, tight encounter until the last ten minutes when we ran out of steam and conceded three goals to go down 5-1. The match against Avondale College has always been a rugged, physical affair but this year an efficient referee kept the players apart and we were unlucky to draw 1-1 in the last minutes.

The team was a very well balanced unit with a strong defence constructed around Nick Couch, Berin Jones and Paul West. The midfield worked well off David Robertson, Calvin Fatherly and Jackson Ennor, who were always enterprising and provided good ball to the fast breaking forwards David Glackin and Stephen Yates. The wings David Goodall and Craig Stewart were pacy and provided many opportunities for the sharp-shooters up front.

Our thanks for the guidance and coaching of Mr Lewis, the organisation and enthusiasm of Mr Glackin and the interest of all parents.

Overall, we had a good season with a very flexible team. We started off with some members and ended with others.

It was a hard season with the lack of play due to rain and consequently a lack of practice. In fact our team must hold the record for the team that practised least. We practised not once with our coach but came fifth in Auckland.

Some thanks must go out to Mr Weal who, arranged us and made sure we got to our game. And, we must also thank Euan Philpot who even if he did not turn up made sure someone else turned up.

The star of our game must be Ashley Hughes who scored most of our goals and brought us to our normal 3-2 win.

We had a good set of attacking forwards and a strong set of centres but found we were a bit lacking in the backs.

As happened last year at the end of the first round our team had lost one game and drawn another and it was down to goal difference. To decide which team in our grouping would go up into the championship round and as per last year we were pipped at the post. Auckland Grammar's number two team who we had drawn with in a superb game went up and we played in the second division. The team played with excellent spirit throughout the season, we had great support from the parents some of the best times in fact were during the indoor Soccer practices in the Gym, they got to be watched by a sizable audience.

This was a co-operative and sound team of players. However they experienced a very frustrating season. Many Saturday matches were cancelled because of bad weather and it was virtually impossible to arrange friendly matches or train because of ground conditions.

The team won about half of the matches it played and some performances stood out. Baker, Loukil, Glucina and Goodman always played well. Kershaw, Irvine and Divers showed the most improvement. Taylor and Manning's skills were hampered somewhat by the size of the opposition. Cameron captained the team well until injured and Jones, often under pressure in goal, remained cool and did a great job of keeping our team competitive.

U 14A

Full of enthusiasm, the boys fronted up for Mr Weal at the trials. The team was very keen from the start of the season and there was a good turn out to practices.

The early games of the season were played on hard pitches which enable us to play a good passing game and we had some high scoring wins beating Takapuna 8-0, De la Salle 5-0 and with great confidence disposing of Sacred Heart 6-0 and Dilworth 12-0.

Then we came up against Auckland Grammar who are always hard opponents. It was a fast game with both teams showing excellent skills and the score-line of 1-1 until the final minute was a good indication of both teams strength. The goal mouths were very wet and muddy and unfortunately our poor goalie lost control of the wet ball and we lost our only game for the season 2-1. We were without Brendon for this game with an suspected injury.

The championship round started with wet weekends, cancelled and postponed games and after several attempts we played Kelston Boys at Westlake, winning 4-0. Our game against Howick was won 5-2 on a very wet and muddy pitch which hampered our usual passing game.

Our postponed game against De la Salle we finally played at De la Salle midweek and it was a game played on an almost full-sized perfect pitch. We won 4-2, playing brilliantly. Soon after we beat Macleans College 4-0.

Our final and most important game of the Championship was against Auckland Grammar, and with many boys out with flu' and Anton at badminton, we added David McBride to our team and won 1-0 from a penalty. Unfortunately Grammar protested that David was two months over age and so we lost the Championship by one point.

We had a great forward line with Hamish, Martin and at times Gary. Our magnificent half line was Anton, Brendon and Tony with a steady defence in Scott, Kent, Leighton, Kelcey and our Goalie Dean.

The team would like to thank the services of Mr Weal.

This was undoubtedly Westlake's best team ever in the Auckland Under 14B competition. It was not just the fact that they won the competition, not just the fact that they could bounce back from their only loss of the season to De la Salle, by overwhelming them 12-0 in the return encounter, but it was the skill and the quality and the combination of the forward line which all added up to rate this year's team so highly. I have never seen any team before in this grade which could so consistently bring under control crosses from the wing and shoot them away for goals. In Arlo Cook, Michael Revell, Matthew Franks and Matthew Schollum, Westlake had an exceptional forward line, but Simon O'Connor who got his chance when illness forced one of the four to miss a game showed his class too by scoring four goals himself.

To support these forwards was a hard working, reliable and sound backline who apart from one disastrous five minute period against De la Salle, proved capable of handling all attacks made on their goal, in which Simon Vincent was invariably cool and courageous.

1990 was always going to be a year where the emphasis was on rebuilding, after having lost eight of last years starting line up.

It was very pleasing to see the newer, inexperienced players quickly adapting to the speed and team playing pattern of the First XI.

Even though we did not perform up to our expectation at the Rankin Cup Tournament, we did win three trophies during the season, which is by far the best result ever for the First XI.

We were co-winners of the North Harbour First XI competition. Unfortunately we lost the last game against Rangitoto. We needed a win or draw to win the competition outright, but we went down 1-2 when they scored a lucky goal in the last 30 seconds of play through a penalty stroke.

We also won the Ian Sage Knockout Tournament held between all the First XI's on the North Shore, by convincingly beating Takapuna 2-0 in the final.

The third trophy was for the Trans Tasman Challenge Tournament between Australian and New Zealand Schools. This was played at Rosedale Park during the Mid Term Break. Congratulations to the younger team members here as they were without three of our senior players who were representing Auckland and North Harbour in other tournaments. We beat Orewa 4-0 in the final.

Though we won many of our games, the team did not really play well against the tougher, more experienced teams during inter school exchanges. At times we dominated against all these teams but we failed to concentrate for the full sixty minutes. During these lapses we allowed a number of weak goals to be scored.

As coach I particularly enjoyed the enthusiasm of the younger players, as they were eager to improve and learn. I also appreciated the help the senior boys gave in supporting the new players and their assisting in running the practices.

TEAM PERFORMANCE:

Our defence posed the most difficulties at the commencement of the season. With new fullbacks and goalie, it took a while before we started to show strength in these positions. First year goalie, Shaun Evans adapted to his role with enthusiasm and by the end of the season he was one of the better goalies in the competition. He performed many courageous diving saves.

Clyde Kirkham, playing at left back improved as the season progressed. He was the star of the tournament making a number of fine saves off the line. Alex Campbell, a fourth former, took time to settle into his position at right-back, but his long reach helped him become a strong tackler and he should shine in this position next year.

Glen Morland's skill at distributing the ball and his fine penalty corner hitting was a real asset to the team. Mark Hitchcock and Andrew Robinson contributed well in the halves, pushing forward at every opportunity to link with the forwards.

Michael Kalidas, the most experienced member of the team controlled the game at centre half very well. His tireless running and fine tackling gave support to our new defensive pattern.

Sangai Bhana, a 4th former and Raj Patel, Form 3, two new players to the First XI passed well and showed maturity beyond their playing years. Their strong running and excellent stickwork created many scoring opportunities. John Borrie as Captain, led by example and scored a number of fine goals. Always full of enthusiasm, John continually supported his team both on and off the field.

Geof Taylor at centre forward always gave a 100% effort. He crashed and harassed the opposition defense at every opportunity and finished off many a passing movement, by scoring goals.

Brett Jeffery and Nick Brickell, both contributed well to the team effort, though next year should see these two develop even further.

Tony Purdie, Grant Lee and Simon Reid played a number of games for the team. They always performed well and I would like to thank them for their contribution to the team.

1990 was an excellent foundation for 1991. I look forward to a very successful season next year.

I would like to thank all the team for their support, and with the emphasis placed on skill development and enjoyment, I believe that the boys achieved this, and this consequently led to the development of a strong team spirit.

Thanks to the parents who regularly gave us vocal support from the sideline, as well as supplying transport.

It was a mixed season for the seconds this year, made up of players from the under fifteen side from last year. Even though we could have played in the same grade, we thought it better to go up a grade and experience play against first eleven sides. By the end of the season the team had improved enough to beat the top team by one goal, even though their best player was absent. We seemed to lack aggression in the circle and nobody wanted to score goals. If the boys keep the same team next year they are likely to achieve a higher place, even top in grade two.

Thanks must go to parents for their support from the sideline and to Mr Robin Reid for his umpiring. For those boys who are leaving school I hope that they carry on with hockey and for those that return all the best for next season.

This year's team was made up of mainly third formers of mixed abilities from beginners to Rep. players. Our first game of the season was against Northcote to be played on the turf at Rosedale. Northcote not being a strong hockey school was a good target for us to have our first win. This was not to happen, because we soon found that it was their First Eleven side with some Seventh formers in it. We found that this was the case with most sides we played. Most of the boys were keen and even filled in at odd times to help other teams.

Softball

In the past, Westlake Boys High School softball has been indebted to the time and effort contributed to the sport by Mr. and Mrs. Howe. This extensive support continued this year also, particularly in the areas of coaching and advice, but the Howes were spared the organisational side of running a team by a staff member, Mr. P. Jaques. So it was that the school came to have two teams playing in weekly Softball leagues ... a team having been entered at both the Senior and Junior levels.

The Junior team, though containing some skilful and thoughtful players, found that they lacked the experience in competitive softball to put that talent to best use. The performance of the team was also hampered by the unavailability of an experienced pitcher... the efforts of D. Hayhow in taking up this role were thus much appreciated by the team. It is to the players' credit, however, that they continued to play with a very positive attitude, despite losing the majority of their games by large amounts.

The Senior team contained more experienced players, and had the benefit of an experienced pitcher as well as two capable reserves. Despite the appearance of the team on paper, and the competent play observed on the field, the Senior team was unable to notch up a win in this part of the league. With this record, the team went into a one-day tournament to select a school team to represent the North Shore at the national competition.

This tourney was held on Monday March the 5th, at Rosedale Softball Park, and began for the Westlake team with a match against the eventual winner of the tournament: Birkenhead College. This was a tough start to the day, which carried on at much the same tempo ... games against Massey High School and Orewa College saw the team still playing well and with an admirable spirit, but just not quite able to put it all together when it mattered.

The season ended with an enjoyable exchange with a strong Tauranga Boys College team. Despite the reputation of the visitors, Westlake won the first game of the exchange by a wide margin. This was an enjoyable win which pointed up how skilled the team really was despite a less than successful campaign up to that point. The team's pride in their well-earned victory was only slightly dented by two losses the following day ... it was just a pity that the rest of the school saw them. Both teams owe a lot to the parents who helped transport them to the after-school games and provided much needed help in other ways as well. The teams were: The second half of the season saw the teams unfortunately withdrawn from the competitions due to insufficient interest shown by the players.

Winners of Auckland Secondary Schools Senior A.

At the beginning of the season the team set as their major goal the winning of the Senior A section and thus gain promotion to the Premier Division. The team felt that this was a realistic goal, given the experience and ability of the players.

By the penultimate game of the first round Westlake were five points clear of their nearest rivals Romsin college, whom they met in the last game. This was the first opportunity that the team had of securing the championship as an eight point lead could not have been pegged back. On the day however the team performed well below their true ability and lost 1-0, conceding an unnecessary penalty. During the second round the team had notable victories: against Orewa College 8-0 and Papatōetoe High School 10-1. These however were offset by disappointing draws against Avondale College and Mt Roskill Grammar. A loss to a much improved Mt Albert Grammar side meant that everything hinged on the last game against Rosmini. Played in atrocious conditions the team clung to a slender 2-1 lead playing into a gale during the second half. This game showed the teams fighting spirit and their resolve to achieve their set goal.

NATIONAL SECONDARY SCHOOLS TOURNAMENT

Tournament success depends to some extent on a little bit of luck. The teams chances of qualifying for the top eight were effectively ruined in the very first game when, despite dominating for 80% of the time, Christchurch Boys High School scored from one of their two raids in the second half. From that time on the team played with courage and skill and were within 10 minutes of securing a place in the top 8 only to have Christchurch Boys score the goal against De La Salle which saw them pip Westlake. Westlake did have the satisfaction however of being the only team to beat the eventual winners Shirley Boys High 2-0.

OVERVIEW

The team had an enjoyable season. Each individual at some time contributed to the winning of the championship.

Scott Francis in goal proved to be courageous, agile and keen to learn. Gareth McFarlane as leading goal scorer was kept up to his work by Ian Hamilton whose ability to read the game as well as score many goals were crucial to our success. Douglas Ironsides goals against Avondale and Rosmini in the final two games effectively sealed the championship. In the midfield the team was greatly strengthened by the arrival of Dylan Jones, the tireless running and goal scoring ability of Glen Taylor, the adventurous play of Simon Slawson and the ferocious determination of Brendon Hooker. Daniel Jones, Shaun Haward and Nick Larkin kept the best attacks under control while Mattson Arblaster showed what a willingness to learn and a determination to succeed can do.

A team however, needs strong reserves. David Saunders, Damesh Kumar, Chris Trew were all called upon to make their contribution and they never let the team down. David Glackin's inclusion into the tournament team showed what depth there is at Westlake for he quickly and easily slotted in.

On a personal note I would like to thank Frank for the time and effort he once again put into the team and Trevor Weal for so ably looking after the team for the first five matches while I was away.

Finally I would like to thank all those parents who supported the team this year. To Rob Arblaster for his tireless work patching the boys up, to Mrs Hamilton for organising the afternoon teas, to all the mums and dads for providing the food, the transport and the encouragement, without your support, the season would not have been as successful or nearly as enjoyable.

3rd Row: M.Schollum, S.Bond, C.Dorward.
 2nd Row: A.Cook, B.Robertson, T.Glucina, M.Franks.
 1st Row: S.O'Connor, M.Revell, S.Vincent, M.Morris, H.Smith.

POINTS FOR: 68
 POINTS AGAINST: 11

TEAM: S. Bond, A. Cook, C. Dorward, M. Franks, A. Glucina, M. Morris, S. O'Connor, M. Revell, B. Robertson, M. Schollum, H. Smith, S. Vincent.

This was undoubtedly Westlake's best team ever in the Auckland Under 14B competition. It was not just the fact that they won the competition, not just the fact that they could bounce back from their only loss of the season to De la Salle, by overwhelming them 12-0 in the return encounter, but it was the skill and the quality and the combination of the forward line which all added up to rate this year's team so highly. I have never seen any team before in this grade which could so consistently bring under control crosses from the wing and shoot them away for goals. In Arlo Cook, Michael Revell, Matthew Franks and Matthew Schollum, Westlake had an exceptional forward line, but Simon O'Connor who got his chance when illness forced one of the four to miss a game showed his class too by scoring four goals himself.

To support these forwards was a hard working, reliable and sound backline who apart from one disastrous five minute period against De la Salle, proved capable of handling all attacks made on their goal, in which Simon Vincent was invariably cool and courageous.

RESULTS:

KELSTON	2-0
A.G.S.	7-2
MACLEANS	9-0
DILWORTH 2	12-0
DE LA SALLE	3-5
WBHS 2	6-2
ST KENTS	7-1
DILWORTH 1	10-1
DE LA SALLE	12-0

There were only twelve in the squad and this caused difficulties when flu struck the school, but there were no "passengers" amongst the twelve and all could take pride in the part they played in winning the championship.
